TEAM NOTES

• MSU, ranked as high as No. 11 by some preseason publications, returns one of the most veteran rosters in the nation. The Bulldogs welcome back 19 seniors, including 11 fifth-year scholarship seniors, as well as 28 juniors. The fifth-year seniors include: OL Deion Calhoun, QB Nick Fitzgerald, DE Gerri Green, DT Grant Harris, DT Braxton Hoyett, WR Jesse Jackson, C Elgton Jenkins, RB Dontavian Lee, CB Chris Rayford, DT Cory Thomas and RB Aeris Williams. Eight of the fifth-year seniors are returning starters.

• State returns 17 starters - eight on defense and nine on offense. According to Phil Steele, the Bulldogs are the nation's fifth-most experienced team, bringing back 77.8 percent of their letterwinners, 92.5 percent of their total offensive yards and 77.1 percent of their tackle total from a year ago. Over 30 players on the spring two-deep were juniors or seniors. The 92.5 percent of total offensive yardage returning is tops among all Power 5 programs and third nationally behind San Jose State (97.6) and UAB (93.9).

• Head coach Joe Moorhead takes over a program that is one of only five SEC schools to go to a bowl game every season this decade. Alabama, Georgia, LSU and Texas A&M are the others. The Bulldogs have reached a school-record eight straight bowl games and won three in a row.

• Since 2014, a year in which MSU held the No. 1 ranking for five straight weeks, the Bulldogs are tied with LSU for the second-most victories in the SEC West with 34. Alabama is first with 53, while Auburn is third with 33.

• Since the start of the 2014 season, only five teams have held the No. 1 national ranking and MSU is one of those five, joining Alabama, Clemson, Ohio State and Florida State.

• State is likely to be ranked in the preseason polls for the first time since it opened the 2011 season at No. 20. The Bulldogs finished the 2017 campaign at No. 19 in the Associated Press Top 25 and No. 20 in the Coaches poll. They take a streak of seven consecutive ranked weeks into 2018.

• The Joe Moorhead era will begin in primetime on Sept. 1 at 6:30 p.m. CT when State hosts Stephen F. Austin in Davis Wade Stadium. Players report for preseason camp on Aug. 2 followed by the first practice on Aug. 3. It will be the Bulldogs' first night home season opener since 2014.

Nick Fitzgerald

QUARTERBACKS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (2): Nick Fitzgerald (Sr.), Keytaon Thompson (So.)
LETTERMEN LOST (0)
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Nick Fitzgerald (Sr.)
STARTERS LOST (0)
NEWCOMERS (1): Jaylen Mayden (Fr.)

• State's quarterback room is one of the most loaded in talent and experience in the nation. Fifth-year senior Nick Fitzgerald (6-5, 230) will be up for every major award with his dual-threat and big play capabilities. The graduate, who enters his third straight season as the starter after following in the footsteps of All-American Dak Prescott, broke his right ankle on Thanksgiving Night in the Egg Bowl, had surgery the following day and will be ready to go for preseason camp. Fitzgerald resumed running on March 7 and went through spring practice in a limited role, participating in everything except taking a live rush during team periods.

• The owner of 11 school records, Fitzgerald seeks to take the next step in his first year in Joe Moorhead's offense. He has rushed for 2,486 yards during his career, which is fourth-most by a quarterback in SEC history and just 461 yards shy of Tim Tebow's record.

• Sophomore Keytaon Thompson (6-4, 225) is not afraid of the big lights. All Thompson did in his first career start in place of the injured Fitzgerald was lead the Bulldogs to a TaxSlayer Bowl victory. Thompson recorded 446 rushing yards, 388 passing yards and accounted for eight touchdowns in his true freshman season as the backup. His previous start before the TaxSlayer Bowl? Leading Landry-Walker High School to the 2016 Louisiana Class 5A state championship in the Superdome.

Aeris Williams

RUNNING BACKS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (4): Nick Gibson (Jr.), Kylin Hill (So.), Dontavian Lee (Sr.), Aeris Williams (Sr.)
LETTERMEN LOST (0)
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Aeris Williams (Sr.)
STARTERS LOST (0)

• State boasted the 11th-best rushing attack in the nation in 2017, pounding out 3,272 yards. 99.8 percent of that yardage returns in 2018, including all of the running backs.

• Senior Aeris Williams (6-1, 215) enters his third straight year as the starter. In 2017, Williams became the first Bulldog running back to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season since 2014. Among SEC returning backs this season, Williams ranks second in yards per game at 85.2. He forced 30 miss tackles on runs in 2017, which is also the second-highest returning among SEC players.

• Sophomore Kylin Hill (5-11, 215) is poised for breakout season and is a major playmaker. Hill, one of the top recruits in the nation two years ago, tallied 393 yards on 78 carries with two touchdowns last seasons.

Kylin Hill

Jesse Jackson

WIDE RECEIVERS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (6): Jamal Couch (Jr.), Malik Dear (Jr.), Jesse Jackson (Sr.), Osirus Mitchell (So.), Keith Mixon (Jr.), Deddrick Thomas (Jr.)
LETTERMEN LOST (3): Donald Gray, Gabe Myles, Reggie Todd
KEY 2017 REDSHIRTS (1): Austin Williams (RFr.)
NEWCOMERS (2): Stephen Guidry (Jr.), Devonta Jason (Fr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (2): Jesse Jackson (Sr.), Keith Mixon (Jr.)
STARTERS LOST (1): Donald Gray

• MSU returns two starters at wide receiver but loses reliable target Donald Gray. The Bulldogs will count on several new and young faces to rise to the occasion in Joe Moorhead's vertical passing game.
• Senior Jesse Jackson (6-2, 215) was State's leading receiver last season with 27 catches for 276 yards.
• Redshirt freshman Austin Williams (6-3, 205) was arguably the most productive wideout in the spring. Williams, who possesses terrific hands, was outstanding in preseason camp a year ago but redshirted. He's gotten stronger and was a dominant force this spring.
• The Bulldogs should be able to stretch the field with new faces Stephen Guidry (6-4, 190), the No. 1 junior college wide receiver, as well as true freshman Devonta Jason (6-3, 220). Jason went through spring practice. Junior Jamal Couch (6-4, 225) and sophomore Osirus Mitchell (6-5, 210) are rangy targets. Slot receivers Deddrick Thomas (5-9, 190) and Keith Mixon (5-8, 185) bring experience and big play capability to the table.

Farrod Green

TIGHT ENDS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (4): Farrod Green (Jr.), Justin Johnson (Sr.), Dontea Jones (So.), Christian Roberson (So.)
LETTERMEN LOST (1): Jordan Thomas
NEWCOMERS (2): Brad Cumbest (Fr.), Geor'quarius Spivey (Fr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Farrod Green (Jr.)
STARTERS LOST (1): Jordan Thomas (started at WR and 2 TE sets)

• Despite the departure of massive target Jordan Thomas to the Houston Texans in the NFL Draft, MSU's tight ends remain one of the strongest corps on the squad.
• Junior Farrod Green (6-4, 240) enters his third straight year as the starter. Green possesses terrific hands and is a blocking machine. He caught nine passes for 174 yards a year ago and figures to play a much more prominent role in the receiving game in Joe Moorhead's offense.
• The top two tight ends on the two-deep are upperclassmen with Justin Johnson (6-3, 245) entering his senior season.

Elgton Jenkins

OFFENSIVE LINE

LETTERMEN RETURNING (8): Deion Calhoun (Sr.), Greg Eiland (So.), Elgton Jenkins (Sr.), Dareuan Parker (So.), Stewart Reese (So.), Michael Story (Jr.), Evans Wilkerson (Jr.), Darryl Williams (Jr.)
LETTERMEN LOST (1): Martinas Rankin
KEY 2017 REDSHIRTS (3): Tommy Champion (Jr.), Tyre Phillips (Jr.), Cordavien Suggs (RFr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (4): Deion Calhoun (Sr.), Elgton Jenkins (Sr.), Stewart Reese (So.), Darryl Williams (Jr.)
STARTERS LOST (1): Martinas Rankin

• Chemistry, experience and physicality best sum up the 2018 MSU offensive line, which will be one of the best units in the SEC. The Bulldogs return a combined 76 starts on the offensive line and four starters. Gone is left tackle Martinas Rankin, who was a Day 2 2018 NFL Draft pick to the Houston Texans.
• Senior Elgton Jenkins (6-4, 310) enters his second year as the starter at center and is a candidate for the Rimington Trophy. The other starting senior is right guard Deion Calhoun (6-3, 320), who owns the most starts on the line with 23.
• Junior Darryl Williams (6-2, 310) is coming off a terrific sophomore season and will be a force at one of the guard positions.
• The tackles will be manned by sophomore Stewart Reese (6-5, 340) and sophomore Greg Eiland (6-8, 335). Eiland started four games at left tackle last season in place of an injured Martinas Rankin.

Deion Calhoun

Erroll Thompson

LINEBACKERS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (5): Willie Gay Jr. (So.), Leo Lewis (Jr.), Alec Murphy (Jr.), Erroll Thompson (So.), Tim Washington (Jr.)
LETTERMEN LOST (2): Dez Harris, Traver Jung
KEY 2017 REDSHIRTS (1): Tyler Dunning (RFr.)
NEWCOMERS (4): Aaron Brule (Fr.), Jett Johnson (Fr.), Sh'mar Kilby Lane (Jr.), Nathaniel Watson (Fr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Leo Lewis (Jr.)
STARTERS LOST (1): Dez Harris

• Despite the loss of captain and middle linebacker Dez Harris, State returns solid talent at the position led by junior Leo Lewis (6-2, 240), who is slated to play on the outside in the 4-3.
• Replacing Harris will be SEC All-Freshman Erroll Thompson (6-1, 250). Thompson shined in the spring and led all SEC freshmen linebackers in tackle a year ago with 46 tackles. It represented the second straight season that a Bulldog led all SEC freshmen linebackers in tackles as Lewis did it the season before.
• MSU will count heavily on sophomore Willie Gay Jr. (6-2, 235) and junior Tim Washington (6-3, 230). Gay was a prized recruit a year ago and is seeking to play a much more prominent role with his athleticism.

Jeffery Simmons

DEFENSIVE LINE

LETTERMEN RETURNING (11): Fletcher Adams (Jr.), Tre Brown (Sr.), Gerri Green (Sr.), Grant Harris (Sr.), Braxton Hoyett (Sr.), Kendell Jones (Jr.), Kobe Jones (So.), Jeffery Simmons (Jr.), Marquiss Spencer (Jr.), Montez Sweat (Sr.), Cory Thomas (Sr.)
LETTERMEN LOST (0)
KEY 2017 REDSHIRTS (4): Lee Autry (Jr.), James Jackson (RFr.), Aaron Odom (RFr.), Chauncey Rivers (Jr.)
NEWCOMERS (3): Fabien Lovett (Fr.), Devon Robinson (Fr.), Cameron Young (Fr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (4): Gerri Green (Sr.), Braxton Hoyett (Sr.), Jeffery Simmons (Jr.), Montez Sweat (Sr.)
STARTERS LOST (0)

• Depth, experience and NFL talent is all over the MSU defensive line in 2018. The group has a chance to be the best Bulldog defensive line in school history as it returns all four starters, including two All-SEC first teamers.
• Junior Jeffery Simmons (6-4, 300) and senior Montez Sweat (6-6, 245) are the first Coaches First Team All-SEC tandem to return the following year in league history. Simmons is an absolute force in the middle, while Sweat on the edge tied for the SEC lead in sacks (10.5) and tackles for loss (15.5). Both are preseason All-Americans and future NFL Draft picks.
• Edge rushers are everywhere on the State roster. Joining Sweat are senior team captain Gerri Green (6-4, 255), junior Fletcher Adams (6-2, 265), sophomore Kobe Jones (6-4, 270), junior Marquiss Spencer (6-4, 285) and junior Chauncey Rivers (6-3, 275). Rivers makes his highly-anticipated debut and was a monster on the scout team last fall while redshirting. Green collected 11 tackles for loss and five sacks in 2017.
• In the middle, veteran play continues with seniors Braxton Hoyett (6-3, 310) and Cory Thomas (6-5, 310). They own a combined 16 starts.

Mark McLaurin

DEFENSIVE BACKS

LETTERMEN LOST (4): Brandon Bryant, Lashard Durr, Tolando Cleveland, J.T. Gray
KEY 2017 REDSHIRTS (4): Brian Cole (Jr.), Landon Guidry (RFr.), Jacquarius Landrews (Jr.), Tyler Williams (RFr.)
KEY NEWCOMERS (4): Esaias Furdge (Fr.), Marcus Murphy (Fr.), Shawn Preston Jr. (Fr.), Jaylon Reed (Fr.)
STARTERS RETURNING (3): Johnathan Abram (Sr.), Mark McLaurin (Sr.), Chris Rayford (Sr.)
STARTERS LOST (2): Tolando Cleveland, J.T. Gray

• MSU features arguably the top safety tandem in the SEC in seniors Mark McLaurin (6-2, 215) and Johnathan Abram (6-0, 215). McLaurin was the 2017 TaxSlayer Bowl MVP after intercepting Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson three times. He tied for the SEC lead in picks (6).
• At corner, the Bulldogs will rely on seniors Jamal Peters (6-2, 220) and Chris Rayford (6-0, 200). Cam Dantzler (6-2, 175) will play a prominent role.

SPECIALISTS

LETTERMEN RETURNING (1): Jace Christmann (So.)
LETTERMEN LOST (2): Logan Cooke, Hunter Bradley
STARTERS RETURNING (1): Jace Christmann (So.)
STARTERS LOST (2): Logan Cooke (punter), Hunter Bradley (snapper)

• Sophomore Jace Christmann, a 2017 FWAA Freshman All-American, returns to handle place kicking duties. Christmann was 12-of-14 last year.
• Junior Kody Schexnayder (5-10, 195) and sophomore Tucker Day (6-0, 205) will battle it out for punting duties. MSU must replace 2017 NFL Draftees Hunter Bradley (Packers) and Logan Cooke (Jaguars).

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics John Cohen was charged with finding the Bulldogs' 33rd head football coach, he was looking for a man with a pedigree of a winner, an innovator, a blue-collar work ethic and at the forefront, a 'ball coach.' From the beginning of the search, Joe Moorhead was that unequivocal leader. Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator and the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut the past two seasons, takes the reins of Mississippi State football in 2018.

Officially named head coach on November 29, 2017, Moorhead brings a championship standard mantra to Starkville centered on winning a Southeastern Conference Championship and competing for a national title. The 44-year-old has played a pivotal role in conference championships at his last four coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

Joe Moorhead compiled a 38-13 record in four seasons as the head coach at Fordham, including three straight FCS Playoff appearances.

Moorhead's first season at Mississippi State will be his 21st in collegiate coaching and his fifth as a head coach. In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pa., native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 recruiting class just weeks on the job, hiring an elite coaching staff, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Penn State's Offensive Explosion

Moorhead received national acclaim during the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on James Franklin's Penn State staff. Tabbed as Sports Illustrated and Yahoo's No. 1 rising assistant in college football in August 2017, Moorhead transformed the Nittany Lions offensively and spearheaded them to a combined 21-5 record, a 17-3 mark in Big Ten regular season play, the 2016 Big Ten Championship, two New Year's Six bowls and back-to-back Top 10 national rankings.

Explosive, balanced offenses have been a trademark of Moorhead at every stop of his career. Penn State scored at least 30 points in 21 of the 26 games he coached, and they averaged 39.4 points per game during that span.

The 2017 campaign saw the Nittany Lions rank in the Top 25 nationally in seven different offensive categories, including seventh in points per game (41.1), fifth in third conversion percentage (48.0), 14th in passing efficiency (153.6), 17th in yards per play (6.55), 19th in total offense (460.3), 23rd in passing yards per game (290.2) and 21st in red zone conversion percentage (89.8). They also produced four 50-point games, representing the most in a Penn State season since 1994.

For the second time in his career, Moorhead was recognized as the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year during a Nittany Lions' season that was capped with a Fiesta Bowl berth and school records for passing yards (3,772) and points scored (534). Individually in 2017, three of Moorhead's players received All-America status, while eight were tabbed either first-team, second-team, or honorable mention All-Big Ten.

Moorhead's expertise was evident in the development of quarterback Trace McSorley and running back Saquon Barkley. Together they formed one of the elite backfields in all of college football. McSorley, a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, became just the second player in Big Ten history to register 25 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing scores in a single season. He also was the first player in program history to produce multiple seasons of 3,000 yards passing. Barkley, a consensus All-American and the first running back in Big Ten history to claim multiple Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors, ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329). He broke four school career records, including rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) and consecutive games with a touchdown (15) in just three seasons.

Four of Moorhead's offensive players heard their names called in the first four rounds of the 2018 NFL Draft, while two additional ones signed undrafted free agent contracts. Barkley led the way with the No. 2 overall selection, becoming the highest drafted Nittany Lion in 19 years and the highest drafted running back overall since Reggie Bush in 2006. All-American Mike Gesicki followed with the 42nd pick in the second round, making him the highest drafted Penn State tight end since 1995. Wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton was a fourth round selection. In addition, Fordham running back Chase Edmonds, recruited and coached by Moorhead for two seasons, was a fourth round selection.

The 2016 season saw Moorhead earn National Offensive Coordinator of the Year honors by 247Sports, a year in which the Nittany Lions claimed their first outright Big Ten Championship in two decades and berth in the Rose Bowl. They reeled off nine straight conference victories and finished the year 11-3 highlighted by triumphs over No. 2 Ohio State and No. 6 Wisconsin.

In Moorhead's first season, Penn State shattered then-school records for total offense (6,056), passing yards (3,650) and points scored (526). The Nittany Lions improved their scoring average by a staggering 14.4 points from 2015 to 2016, which ranked fourth nationally. They racked up 30 or more points in 11 games, which was the most since the 1994 squad.

The results were astounding for an offense that just a year prior to his arrival finished No. 100 nationally in scoring and No. 105 in total offense. Penn State leaped 79 spots to No. 21 in scoring offense in Moorhead's first season.

McSorley, in his first season under Moorhead, threw for a school-record 29 touchdown passes en route to earning All-Big Ten second team honors, Big Ten Championship game MVP and Maxwell Club Tri-State Player of the Year. Barkley was tabbed as Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, the first for a Nittany Lion in 12 years.

Head Coach in the Bronx

Moorhead is no stranger to building and maintaining a program as a head coach. Prior to his stint at Penn State, he posted a 38-13 record as head coach at Fordham University from 2012-15. After inheriting a program that went 1-10, he steadily built the Rams into a Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) powerhouse, leading them to their best season in program history in 2013 and the Patriot League title in 2014. They reached the FCS playoffs in three straight seasons under his watch.

During his tenure, Moorhead produced the highest ranking in program history (No. 5 in 2013), the highest final ranking in program history (No. 9 in 2013 and 2014), the first two wins over FBS schools

CHAMPIONSHIP STANDARD

On Nov. 29, 2017, Joe Moorhead walked off the plane in Starkville to the scene of hundreds of MSU fans and several players. Moorhead immediately asked the players what their ring sizes were. Since his arrival, he is creating a championship standard culture within the program where discipline, accountability, attention to detail and selflessness reign supreme.

in program history and the first two wins over Top 10 opponents in school history.

Moorhead guided the 2014 Jerry Rice Award for the NCAA FCS Rookie of the Year, three consecutive Patriot League Offensive Players of the Year, 11 All-Americans, five CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 55 All-Patriot League performers (37 first team, 18 second team) while with the Rams. The Rams were consistently one of the top offensive teams in the FCS and they set 16 school records (individual and team) in 2013 and 2014.

In 2014, Moorhead led the Rams to their first Patriot League title since 2007 with a perfect 6-0 mark in league play and an 11-3 record overall.

In one of the most impressive feats in school history, Moorhead guided the Rams to a 12-2 record in 2013, which included the program's first win over an FBS opponent (Temple) and the school's first two wins over Top 10 opponents (Villanova, Lehigh). For his efforts, Moorhead was named the 2013 AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the Year and Patriot League Coach of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

The Early Years

Before returning to take the helm at his alma mater, Moorhead spent three seasons at Connecticut, including two as the offensive coordinator. He served as the offensive coordinator in 2009 and 2010, leading an offensive unit that was second in the BIG EAST Conference in scoring offense and rushing offense in 2010, as the Huskies won the conference title and appeared in the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma.

Following the season, running back Jordan Todman was named Second Team All-America and BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year. Additionally, two other offensive players were named First Team All-BIG EAST with Todman (San Diego/sixth round) and Anthony Sherman (Arizona/fifth round) being selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2009, UConn finished the season as the third most productive offense in the BIG EAST, second in scoring, and Moorhead was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award, presented annually to the top assistant coach in the NCAA FBS. The Huskies finished the season 8-5 and defeated South Carolina in the PapaJohns.com Bowl.

Prior to his stay at Connecticut, Moorhead served as an assistant coach at Akron for five years (2004-08), including the final two as the offensive coordinator. In 2008, Akron was one of 17 schools nationally to be ranked among the top 50 in rushing offense (45th at 165.7 ypg), passing offense (46th at 231.50), total offense (40th at 396.97) and scoring offense (36th at 30.0 ppg).

Akron was the most improved school in the nation in 2008 in total offense, and it was the sixth-most improved in scoring offense. In the Mid-American Conference (MAC), Akron was third in points per game and turnover margin (plus 0.5) and fourth in rushing yards per game.

Moorhead served as the assistant head coach, pass game and recruiting coordinator on Akron's only conference championship team in the program's 120-year plus history in 2005. The Zips claimed the Mid-American Conference Eastern Division title and then topped Northern Illinois, 31-30, in the MAC Championship Game to secure the squad's first-ever bowl appearance.

The Quarterback, Family Man

As a collegiate performer at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

The son of a steel mill worker, Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra (17), son Mason (15) and son Donovan (11).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ...

"We couldn't be happier for Joe Moorhead and his family. This is a tremendous opportunity for him to return to being a head coach and continue to move forward in his career. We are so appreciative of everything that he has done for Penn State Football in his two years. Joe's combination of leadership, X's and O's, and, most importantly, positive attitude brought the best out of our very talented offensive student-athletes. He has been a great mentor and coach to our student-athletes and friend to me and our staff. We wish Joe nothing but success at Mississippi State.
- James Franklin, Penn State Head Coach

"Joe Moorhead is one of the best offensive minds in all of college football. He has head coaching experience at the collegiate level, and is ready to shine with an opportunity like this one at Mississippi State."
- Todd Blackledge, ESPN

"Great news for Mississippi State & Nick Fitzgerald. Moorhead is an awesome teacher and innovative mind."
- Trent Dilfer; ESPN analyst, 13-year NFL quarterback and Super Bowl XXXV Champion

"Joe Moorhead was one of the best production meetings our crew had all year. You can see why players love him. Highly intelligent and fun scheme to watch in my preparation. Looking forward to seeing what he can do at Mississippi State."
- Brady Quinn, Fox Sports analyst and eight-year NFL quarterback

PENN STATE JUGGERNAUT

Joe Moorhead, the two-time National Offensive Coordinator of the Year, was the catalyst for Penn State's offensive explosion in 2016 and 2017. Moorhead's innovative offensive system shattered school records and helped produce four offensive NFL Draft picks -- all in the first four rounds -- in his two years. Penn State claimed the 2016 Big Ten Championship, its first since 2008.

A 19-year NFL coaching veteran, Brian Baker has molded Mississippi State's defensive line into one of the most ferocious and consistent units in all of college football. With over 30 years of coaching experience, Baker enters his third season with the Bulldogs and first on Joe Moorhead's staff.

Baker's leadership was evident in 2017 as the Bulldogs' produced multiple first-team All-SEC defensive linemen for the first time in school history. Both sophomore Jeffery Simmons and junior Montez Sweat earned the nod on the Associated Press and Coaches' teams. It represented just the second time since 2003 that an SEC West school produced multiple first-team All-SEC defensive linemen (Alabama, 2015).

Simmons, who was constantly double-teamed, ranked 11th in the SEC in tackles for loss and added five sacks and 41 quarterback pressures. He also became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in blocked punts/kicks with three. All Sweat did was lead the SEC in sacks (10.5) and tackles for loss (15.5) during his debut campaign. He was the first Bulldog to lead the league in sacks since 2005.

In 2018, Baker's personnel combined to claim five of the 13 SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week Awards with Sweat earning it three times and Simmons twice. The next closest schools – Auburn, Ole Miss, South Carolina and Missouri – each earned it twice during the year.

Baker's first season of 2016 in Starkville saw his unit rank in the top five of the SEC in tackles for loss (81). Three of his players signed NFL free agent contracts in May 2017, including Nelson Adams (Pittsburgh Steelers), Johnathan Calvin (Green Bay Packers) and Nick James (Detroit Lions).

Baker also mentored Simmons into a Freshman All-SEC season. Simmons led all SEC freshmen in forced fumbles (two), and he finished with 40 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and four quarterback hurries. He ranked fifth among SEC freshmen in tackles. Simmons became the first Bulldog defensive lineman to earn the honor since current Kansas City Chiefs standout Chris Jones in 2013.

Baker coached eight Pro Bowlers, including the likes of DeMarcus Ware and Julius Peppers. He spent the 2014 season with the Redskins as outside linebacker Ryan Kerrigan recorded a career-best 13.5 sacks under Baker's tutelage.

Prior to his year in Washington, he served as the Cleveland Browns' outside linebackers coach, helping the Browns finish third in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in total defense (332.4 yards per game).

Baker spent the 2011-12 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Dallas Cowboys. Under Baker, nose tackle Jay Ratliff earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2012. Baker also contributed to the Pro Bowl selections of linebackers DeMarcus Ware and Anthony Spencer as part of his responsibilities overseeing the pass rush.

Prior to his time in Dallas, Baker spent two seasons as the Carolina Panthers' defensive line coach from 2009-10. In 2010, defensive end Charles Johnson led the Panthers with 11.5 sacks, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL. In 2009, defensive end Julius Peppers led the team with 10.5 sacks en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

Baker coached the St. Louis Rams' defensive line from 2006-08. In 2008, his unit notched 20 of the team's 30 sacks. In 2006, defensive end Leonard Little tied for fifth in the league with 13.0 sacks, while defensive tackle La'Roi Glover finished sixth among NFC defensive tackles with 5.5 sacks.

From 2001-05, Baker worked in various capacities for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive line coach in 2001 and 2004-05 and as linebackers coach from 2002-03. He helped defensive tackle Kevin Williams earn his first of six Pro Bowl selections following the 2004 season. That season, Williams recorded a career-best 11.5 sacks and was selected to the AP All-Pro team. Along with Williams, defensive end Lance Johnstone totaled 11 sacks in 2004 to give the Vikings the third-most prolific sack duo in the league that year with 22.5.

Baker was the Detroit Lions' defensive line coach from 1997-2000, spearheading defensive linemen Robert Porcher (1997 and 1999) and Luther Elliss (1999 and 2000) to Pro Bowl selections. In 1999, Porcher registered 15 sacks, the most by any Lion in a single-season since sacks became official in 1982.

Baker made his NFL coaching debut as the defensive line coach with the San Diego Chargers in 1996 after spending 12 years on the collegiate level. He had stints at Georgia Tech (1987-95), Army (1986) and Maryland (1984-85).

The highlight of his nine years as linebackers coach at Georgia Tech came in 1990. The Yellow Jackets claimed the 1990 National Championship as the nation's only unbeaten team with an 11-0-1 record. Tech defeated Nebraska 45–21 in the 1991 Citrus Bowl to complete the unbeaten season.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Baker played outside linebacker at the University of Maryland from 1980-83 and helped the Terps win the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1983. After his playing career, he helped coach outside linebackers as a student coach and graduate assistant from 1984-85 and earned a degree in marketing in 1985.

Baker and his wife, Nevada, have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine.

Andrew Breiner and Joe Moorhead's coaching relationship dates back to their Connecticut days from 2009-11. The two reunite in Starkville as Breiner, the former Fordham head coach, serves as Mississippi State's pass game coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Moorhead officially announced the hiring on December 6, 2017.

Breiner, a native of Hummelstown, Pa., compiled a 12-10 record as the head coach at Fordham from 2016-17, including an 8-3 mark in his first year. The eight victories were the most for a first-year head coach in the modern Fordham era. Breiner was promoted to head coach after Moorhead departed to Penn State as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2015.

The two formed an explosive offense in the Bronx. Breiner was Moorhead's offensive coordinator at Fordham from 2012-15, and he was Moorhead's offensive graduate assistant at Connecticut for three seasons prior.

Under Breiner's tutelage in 2016, Fordham ranked fourth in the FCS in both total offense (498.2 ypg) and scoring offense (40.1 ppg). The Rams were also 10th nationally and second in the Patriot League in passing efficiency that season (156.0).

The 2016 Rams were commanded by consensus All-American running back Chase Edmonds, who finished fourth in voting for the 2016 Walter Payton Award, presented to the NCAA FCS offensive player of the year. Edmonds led the FCS in rushing yards per game (163.5), and he was second in total rushing yards as well as ranking second in all-purpose yards per game (194.6) and third in rushing touchdowns.

As Moorhead's offensive coordinator from 2012-15, Fordham ranked in the Top 10 of the FCS in nearly every category. In 2015, the Rams led the Patriot League and were ninth nationally in scoring (36.8 ppg). They led the league and were second in the FCS in passing efficiency (168.30).

Two members of the 2015 Fordham offense earned All-America honors, including Edmonds and lineman Garrick Mayweather, Jr. Edmonds was also named the 2015 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year.

In the spring of 2018, Edmonds became the highest drafted Fordham player since 1943 when the Arizona Cardinals selected him in the fourth round (pick No. 134). Edmonds was the first Ram to be selected in the NFL Draft since 2010 and only the third Ram taken since 1968.

In 2014, the Fordham offense enjoyed another record-breaking season under Breiner's watch with seven offensive players earning All-America honors and 10 receiving All-Patriot League accolades. Quarterback Mike Nebrich was named Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

The 2014 Rams offense set school-record marks for rushing yards (2,353), points (569) and rushing touchdowns (31). Edmonds did most of the damage on the ground, gaining 1,838 yards with 23 touchdowns, both school records.

That same year under Moorhead and Breiner, Fordham ranked fourth nationally in passing offense (326.1), fifth in scoring offense (40.6)), third in team passing efficiency (156.2), seventh in total offense (494.1) and ninth in first downs (331). For the second straight year, Fordham had a 1,000 rusher (Edmonds) and three 1,000-yard receivers (Brian Wetzel, Tebucky Jones, Jr., and Sam Ajala).

In 2013, Breiner's passing unit saw unparalleled success as it led the FCS in pass completion percentage (.706) with quarterback Mike Nebrich, the 2013 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year. Fordham ranked first in the nation in pass completion percentage (.735) and total offense (376.4 ypg), and they were second in passing efficiency (171.3), third in passing yards (336.9 ypg), third in passing touchdowns (35) and third in completions per game (27.15). Nebrich set school single season records for completions, passing yards and passing touchdowns.

With the success of the passing game came recognition of the Fordham wide receivers as Sam Ajala was named All-America and First Team All-Patriot League as was tight end Dan Light, while Tebucky Jones, Jr., and Brian Wetzel were both named Second Team All-Patriot League. Ajala set school records for most receiving yards in a season (1,646) and tied the record with 14 receiving touchdowns (as did Wetzel) while Light set the mark for most receptions in a season by a tight end (66).

In 2012, Breiner led a Fordham offense that ranked second in the Patriot League in scoring offense (31.2 ppg), passing offense (279.6 ypg) and total offense (435.7 ypg). Additionally, the Rams were ranked 18th in the FCS in passing offense as quarterback Ryan Higgins threw for 2,940 yards, the fourth-best single season for a Fordham quarterback in school history.

At Connecticut, Breiner worked with the offensive staff in all phases of research and development, coaching and game planning as well as working individually with the quarterbacks and wide receivers in 2009 and 2010. He worked with the quarterbacks and running backs in 2011 and also had special teams responsibilities with the kickoff and kickoff return units.

Breiner was part of the staff that helped the Huskies to the 2010 BIG EAST championship and an appearance in the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In 2010, UConn appeared in the PapaJohns.com Bowl and received the Lambert Trophy, presented annually to the best team in the Northeast in Division I FBS college football.

Prior to his stay at UConn, Breiner was an assistant coach at Allegheny College in Meadville, Pa., for two seasons. He worked with the quarterbacks in 2008 and the wide receivers in 2007. He began his coaching career in 2006 at Lock Haven University, when he sustained a career-ending injury midway through his senior year and began working with the wide receivers.

A Dean's List student, Breiner graduated in 2006 from Lock Haven University with a degree in health and physical education. He was a four-year letter winner with the Bald Eagles as a wide receiver and also played special teams. Breiner won a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award from the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the NFF for his accomplishments athletically, academically and in the community.

Breiner and his wife, Kelly, are the parents of a four-year-old daughter, Abigail.

A Mississippian through and through, Terrell Buckley returned to his home state in 2016 as an assistant coach at Mississippi State. In 2018, Buckley enters his third season overseeing a very talented group of cornerbacks. He adds working with the Bulldogs' special teams return men to his repertoire this season.

Buckley, a 14-year NFL veteran and Super Bowl champion, was one of the most dynamic players in Mississippi history, guiding Pascagoula High School to a 1987 football state championship and undefeated season. He was inducted into the Pascagoula Athletic Hall of Fame in June. He was born in Columbia, Miss., and spent most of his childhood in Gautier.

Buckley was instrumental in helping MSU haul in back-to-back Top 25 recruiting classes. During his entire coaching tenure, Buckley has coached 13 players who have signed professional contracts, including most recently Lashard Durr (Indianapolis Colts) and 2018 NFL first rounder Jaire Alexander (Green Bay Packers).

The 2017 season was one of the best on record in terms of pass defense at MSU. Buckley's group spearheaded a Bulldog pass defense that allowed only 174.7 yards per game through the air, which ranked fourth in the SEC and 12th nationally. That figure was also the best by a State defense in 13 years when the 2004 squad allowed 174.5 yards per game passing.

Buckley's squad of Durr, Tolando Cleveland, Jamal Peters, Chris Rayford and Cameron Dantzler was rarely challenged. As a whole, the Bulldog defense ranked 10th nationally, allowing only 306.3 yards per game. MSU ranked fourth in the SEC in interceptions with 13, including a 90-yard pick six from Peters.

Buckley helped the Bulldogs claim nine victories for the third time in four years, and it culminated with an impressive victory against Louisville in the TaxSlayer Bowl. His disruptive unit forced 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson into a career-high four interceptions, including one from Dantzler.

Despite a rash of injuries in the secondary in 2016, the Bulldogs ranked in the top tier of the league in interceptions with 14. Buckley's squad closed the year on a two-game winning streak, shutting down Ole Miss and Miami (Ohio) to capture the Egg Bowl and St. Petersburg Bowl, respectively.

Buckley spent the 2014-15 seasons coaching cornerbacks at Louisville and helping the Cardinals to back-to-back bowl appearances, including a Music City Bowl victory over Texas A&M in December 2015. In both of Buckley's seasons, Louisville was tops in the Atlantic Coast Conference in interceptions and turnovers gained.

His two starting cornerbacks – Trumaine Washington and Shaq Wiggins -- earned honorable mention All-ACC honors. Despite a young secondary in 2015, Louisville ranked 14th nationally in interceptions with 14. The Cardinals also led the league in turnovers gained (26, 20th nationally) and were second in the ACC in passes defended (66, 30th nationally).

In Buckley's first season of 2014, Louisville boasted one of the elite secondary's in all of college football. The Cardinals led the nation in interceptions with 26. As a unit, the squad ranked sixth nationally in total defense (308.5 ypg) and 11th nationally in turnovers gained (30). Buckley mentored corners Charles Gaines and Terell Floyd, both of whom inked NFL contracts following their collegiate careers.

Prior to his stint at Louisville, Buckley was a member of Terry Bowden's staff at Akron, coaching corners from 2012-13. Two of Buckley's players - Micklos Blake and Bryce Cheek - earned academic honorable mention honors from the Mid-American Conference.

Buckley got his coaching start after earning his undergraduate degree from Florida State in 2007. From 2008-11, he served in various assistant roles on Bobby Bowden and Jimbo Fisher's staffs. During his Seminole coaching days, he worked closely with Xavier Rhodes and Patrick Robinson, both first round draft choices. Rhodes is a two-time NFL Pro Bowler, while Robinson won a Super Bowl.

A two-year starter and three-year letterwinner as a cornerback and return specialist at FSU (1989-91), he was inducted into the school's sports hall of fame in 2003. He had his jersey No. 27 retired in 2011, and he is one of nine players in FSU history to earn that distinction.

Buckley left FSU as the program's all-time leader in interceptions (21) and interception return yards (501). He tied school records for touchdowns off interceptions (4) and punt returns (3). His interception return yardage still stands as an NCAA FBS record.

He earned consensus All-America honors as a junior in 1991 and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. That same season, he finished seventh in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

Buckley was also a member of the Seminoles baseball team for two seasons (1990-91), playing outfield and second base, and was a sprinter on the outdoor track team (1991-92). He was picked fifth overall in the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and spent the next 14 seasons in the league on six different teams (1992-2005).

During his NFL career, Buckley amassed 50 interceptions. In 1996, Buckley led the league in interception return yards (164) and, as a rookie in 1992, set what remains a current record as the youngest player to return a punt for a touchdown (21 years, 105 days - Sept. 20, 1992, versus Cincinnati).

Buckley had at least one interception in 13 consecutive NFL seasons. As a member of the New England Patriots in the 2001 AFC Championship game, he tallied an interception in a 24-17 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Two weeks later, he added a championship ring to his collection when the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVI over the St. Louis Rams in New Orleans, not far from his hometown.

Buckley, an avid golfer, was listed on the 2018 and 2019 ballots for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Buckley has three daughters, Sherrell, Brianna and Britney.

Former NFL coach Luke Getsy reunites with his former college coach and mentor Joe Moorhead in 2018. Getsy begins his first season in Starkville as the Bulldogs' offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. The Munhall, Pa., native played and then launched a coaching career under Moorhead's tutelage at Akron.

Getsy, 34, spent the past four seasons (2014-17) as an offensive assistant with one of the most storied franchises in the NFL in the Green Bay Packers. He served a two-year stint as the team's offensive quality control (2014-15) before being promoted to wide receivers coach on Feb. 17, 2016.

Green Bay proved to be a dominant receiving force in his two seasons as wide receivers coach, and the Packers reached the NFL playoffs three times and two NFC Championships during his four-year tenure. Despite losing future Hall of Fame quarterback Aaron Rodgers to injury most of the 2017 season, Getsy mentored Davante Adams into one of the league's top playmakers. Adams ranked second in the NFL with 10 receiving touchdowns during the regular season.

In his first year as receivers coach in 2016, the Packers were one of two teams in the NFL to have three wide receivers (Jordy Nelson, Davante Adams and Randall Cobb) with 60-plus receptions and 600-plus receiving yards. After missing the 2015 season due to a knee injury, Nelson was named The Associated Press NFL Comeback Player of the Year after starting all 16 games and leading the team in all three receiving categories with 97 receptions for 1,257 yards (13.0 avg.) and 14 touchdowns. Adams posted career highs with 75 catches for 997 yards (13.3 avg.) and 12 TDs. Nelson led the NFL in TDs (14) and Adams tied for No. 2 (12) as they become only the second teammate duo in franchise history with 12-plus TD catches each in the same season (Nelson and Cobb, 2014).

In 2015, Getsy assisted with an offense that posted eight zero-turnover games, tied for No. 1 (2009) in franchise history (since 1933). Additionally, he worked with an offense that had four players with 50-plus receptions for only the third time (1983, 2002) since 1940.

In his first season with the Packers in 2014, Getsy was part of an offensive staff that helped the Packers lead the league in scoring (30.4 ppg) and set team single-season records for first downs (356) and giveaways (13). Green Bay ranked No. 6 in the NFL in total yards per game (386.1), and the team's 6,178 total yards on the season were the fourth most in franchise history.

At Western Michigan, his last stop on the collegiate level, Getsy spent the 2013 season coaching wide receivers and tutored Corey Davis, who earned second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors and was named Freshman of the Year in the conference after catching 67 passes for 941 yards (14.0 avg.) and six TDs. Davis also earned Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and College Football News. Getsy helped build the Broncos' 2014 recruiting class that was rated in the top 50 nationally and the best in MAC history by Rivals.com. He recruited Wyatt Pfeifer of Delaware, Ohio, to Western Michigan, the only MAC signee to be selected to the U.S. Army All-American Bowl.

As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (2011-12), Getsy helped guide the Crimson Hawks to the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference title and a final ranking of No. 6 in Division II in 2012. The team ranked No. 10 nationally in rushing offense with an average of 259.3 yards per game, led by a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in Harvie Tuck (1,660) and De'Antwan Williams (1,325). Tuck was named the PSAC Offensive Player of the Year for the Western Division in 2012. In 2011, Tuck rushed for 1,007 yards (No. 3 in the conference) and QB Pat Smith posted a 155.0 passing efficiency rating (No. 4 in the conference) under Getsy's direction.

Getsy served as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 2010. He was part of a staff that helped guide the Panthers to a share of the Big East title and an appearance in the BBVA Compass Bowl, where they beat Kentucky, 27-10. Pittsburgh's offense featured three players who were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft in wide receiver Jon Baldwin (Kansas City), running back Dion Lewis (Philadelphia) and tackle Jason Pinkston (Cleveland).

In 2009, Getsy was the offensive coordinator at West Virginia Wesleyan College. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Akron, serving as a graduate assistant from 2007-08 under Moorhead.

As a player in Moorhead's offense at Akron, Getsy set 24 individual school records in his two seasons with the Zips after transferring from Pittsburgh. As a junior in 2005, he led the MAC with 3,455 passing yards, the second-best single-season mark in school history behind only Charlie Frye's 3,549-yard total in 2003. Getsy led the Zips to the conference title that season and was named MVP of the MAC Championship Game after throwing for 413 yards in the team's 31-30 victory vs. Northern Illinois. He went on to throw for 455 yards, a Motor City Bowl record, along with four touchdowns, against Memphis in the Zips' first-ever Division I FBS bowl game.

As a senior, Getsy led the MAC with 2,665 passing yards on 199-of-380 passing and added 18 touchdowns. In just two seasons with the Zips, Getsy threw for 6,117 yards, the third-most in school history, and 41 touchdowns on 477-of-905 passing. He graduated with a degree in marketing management and sales management, earning MAC All-Academic honors in 2005 and 2006.

Following his collegiate career, Getsy played in the North-South All-Star Classic in Houston. He was signed by the San Francisco 49ers as an undrafted free agent in May 2007 and was with the club through the preseason.

Getsy earned first-team Associated Press all-state honors as a senior at Steel Valley High School in Munhall, Pa., after completing 100 of 172 passes for 1,654 yards and 16 TDs. The first four-year starter in school history, he finished his career as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer with 6,021 yards and led his school to the WPIAL playoffs four times. Getsy was selected to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's "Fabulous 22" team and the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review's "Terrific 25" squad.

Getsy and his wife, Tina, have three sons, John, Paul and Adam, and a daughter, Nora.

Mississippi native Mark Hudspeth, the former head coach for seven seasons at the University of Louisiana, returns to Starkville as Mississippi State's associate head coach and tight ends coach in 2018. Head Coach Joe Moorhead officially announced Hudspeth's hiring on December 14, 2017, and Hudspeth has hit the ground running on the recruiting trail.

The Louisville, Miss., native had tremendous success as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Bulldogs from 2009-10, including a 2010 campaign that saw MSU reach the Gator Bowl.

Hudspeth guided Louisiana to unprecedented success, including five New Orleans Bowl appearances during his tenure from 2011-17. The Ragin' Cajuns won four straight bowl games under his watch and posted four consecutive nine-win seasons.

His first season of 2011 saw the Ragin' Cajuns reach their first bowl since 1970 after inheriting a team that finished 3-9 a season prior. Louisiana beat San Diego State in the New Orleans Bowl in his debut season, starting a string of four consecutive bowl appearances.

The 2013 season saw Hudspeth lead the Ragin' Cajuns to a share of the Sun Belt Conference championship and another New Orleans Bowl victory. Hudspeth's success attracted record crowds to Lafayette as the Cajuns paced the Sun Belt Conference in average attendance three times during his tenure.

A total of 47 players were named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team during Hudspeth's tenure with running back Elijah McGuire being selected as both the league's Player and Offensive Player of the Year in 2014. Three players - Alonzo Harris (2011), McGuire (2013) and Joe Dillon (2016) – were each named as the league's Freshman of the Year, with McGuire and Dillon each earning Freshman All-America honors.

Academically, Hudspeth's team shattered the program record for team grade point average in three straight seasons, including his final campaign of 2017.

Six of Hudspeth's Louisiana players heard their names called in the NFL Draft, including most recently Tracy Walker (Detroit Lions) and Simeon Thomas (Cleveland Browns). Walker became the first Ragin' Cajun to be selected in the first three rounds since 2011 when he went 85th overall in the 2018 NFL Draft.

Prior to being named the 26th head coach in Louisiana history, Hudspeth was instrumental at Mississippi State (2009-10) as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. He tutored wide receiver Chad Bumphis for two seasons, and Bumphis would later finish his career as the program's all-time leader in receiving yards.

After three years as an assistant coach at Delta State (1999-2000) and Navy (2001), Hudspeth took over as head coach at North Alabama and the winning quickly commenced. He guided the Lions to a 66-21 record in seven seasons (2002-08), winning two Gulf South Conference titles and making five appearances in the NCAA Division II Championship, advancing to the semifinals three times (2003, 2005, 2008).

Inheriting a program that had three consecutive losing records, Hudspeth turned things around quickly, helping UNA to a 13-1 record in just his second season (2003). UNA claimed the league title with a perfect 9-0 mark and advanced to the NCAA Championship for the first time in seven years, defeating Southern Arkansas and Carson-Newman before falling at North Dakota in the national semifinals.

For his efforts, Hudspeth was named the Gulf South Coach of the Year while also being voted the NCAA Division II Region 2 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

The winning didn't stop there as the Lions went 11-3 and advanced to the NCAA semis in 2005, the first of four straight 10-win campaigns. UNA went 11-1 in 2006, including 8-0 in league play to claim its second Gulf South title, with Hudspeth earning his second coach of the year award while also being selected as the NCAA Division II Region 2 Coach of the Year again. The Lions followed that up with a 10-2 record and an appearance in the NCAA Division II quarterfinals in 2007.

Hudspeth capped off his tenure at North Alabama by guiding the Lions to a 12-2 record in 2008 and making their fourth straight NCAA appearance, falling in the semifinals.

Success came early to Hudspeth at Winston Academy in Louisville as he helped the Patriots to the state title game as a senior in football 1987. He went on to earn all-county honors three times and play in the Mississippi High School All-Star game as a senior. He lettered four seasons at Delta State, working his way up from the scout team to earning a starting job as both a safety (1990) and quarterback (1991).

After graduating from Delta State with a degree in health and education in 1992, Hudspeth began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Arkansas, receiving his master's degree in secondary school administration in 1993. While at UCA, he was part of the coaching staff that guided the squad to the 1992 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference crown.

Hudspeth earned his first full-time coaching position when he went to Nicholls State, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends in 1994 before switching to running backs in 1995.

Hudspeth returned to his high school alma mater in 1996, leading Winston Academy from a program what produced one win in the previous two seasons to a 25-1 record in his two seasons and the 1997 Mississippi Private School Association Class A state title.

He returned to the collegiate ranks in 1999, serving as offensive coordinator at Delta State for two seasons and helping lead the Statesmen to the 2000 NCAA Division II national title. He moved to Annapolis to serve as offensive coordinator at Navy in 2001 before earning his first collegiate head coaching job at North Alabama the following year.

Hudspeth is married to the former Tyla McConnell and is the father of four sons: Gunner, Captain, Major and Rocky; and one daughter, Carley.

Head coach Joe Moorhead knew immediately who his first staff hire would be when Charles Huff was announced as Mississippi State's new assistant head coach, run game coordinator and running backs coach on December 1, 2017, just one day after Moorhead's official press conference. An elite recruiter and developer of talent, Huff helped solidify a Top 25 recruiting class for the Bulldogs just two weeks on the job.

Huff, a Denton, Md., native spent the past four seasons (2014-17) as Penn State's running backs coach and special teams coordinator. He recruited and developed one of the game's most electrifying players in running back Saquon Barkley, who in 2018 became the highest drafted NFL running back since Reggie Bush went No. 2 overall in 2006. Barkley was called with the second overall pick by the New York Giants.

Huff enters his 14th season of coaching in 2018, a career which includes NFL and Southeastern Conference experience. In addition to Penn State, he's served at Western Michigan (2013), the Buffalo Bills (2012), Vanderbilt (2011), Hampton (2010), Maryland (2009) and Tennessee State (2006-08).

Records fell at the running back position and on special teams under Huff's guidance at Penn State. Barkley, a 2017 consensus All-American, became the first Big Ten running back in history to win Offensive Player of the Year honors twice. He was the first Nittany Lion running back to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors in three straight seasons in 20 years. A Walter Camp National Player of the Year finalist, Barkley ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329). He broke four school career records, including rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) and consecutive games with a touchdown (15) in just three seasons.

The 2016 season saw the Nittany Lions claim the Big Ten Championship, and it was Huff who mentored two record breakers. Barkley broke the Penn State sophomore record for rushing yards (1,496), all-purpose yards (1,972) and points scored (132) en route to winning Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and Big Ten Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year.

Junior kicker Tyler Davis collected All-Big Ten first team honors after tying the Big Ten season record for kicking points (128) and breaking the school record for field goals by a junior (22) and consecutive field goals made (18). Davis also won the Vlade Award for the nation's most accurate kicker, given by the Touchdown Club of Columbus.

Huff recruited Barkley to Penn State, and his freshman season of 2015 was spectacular. The Freshman All-American broke the school freshman season rushing record with 1,076 yards. He was named the Big Ten Network's Big Ten Freshman of the Year in the process.

Huff spent the 2013 season at Western Michigan as the running backs coach and helped the unit nearly double its rushing yards from 2012. The Broncos ran for 1,394 yards in 2013 after running for just 735 yards the year before.

Huff's tenure includes one year in the NFL. During the 2012 season as the assistant running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills, he helped C.J. Spiller to his first career 1,000-yard rushing campaign and a Pro Bowl invitation. The Bills topped 2,000 rushing yards as a team for the first time in 13 seasons and ranked sixth in the NFL with 2,217 yards in 2012.

Huff was also a member of James Franklin's 2011 staff at Vanderbilt as the offensive quality control coach and they worked together at Maryland in 2009, when Huff was the assistant offensive line coach.

Huff mentored NFL first-round pick Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie as the tight ends and special teams coach at Tennessee State from 2007-08. Rodgers-Cromartie was all-conference return specialist.

Huff is a 2005 graduate of Hampton University. He served as a team captain, starting 12 games at center as a senior in 2005. He also played guard, fullback and tight end in his career.

Huff was a member of three Mid-Eastern Atlantic Conference (MEAC) championships, including the undefeated 2005 squad. The Pirates also made two FCS playoff appearances during his playing days.

Former NFL offensive lineman and Mississippi native Marcus Johnson makes the return to his home state as offensive line coach for Mississippi State in 2018.

Johnson, a native of Coffeeville, Miss., played four NFL seasons and spent the last two years as the offensive line coach on David Cutcliffe's staff at Duke. Johnson joined the Duke staff in July of 2011. Prior to being promoted to head offensive line coach in February of 2016, Johnson worked two years (2011-12) as an assistant with the Blue Devils' strength and conditioning program. He then served in the capacity of offensive quality control for three seasons (2013-15).

In his seven seasons, he helped guide Duke to five bowl appearances from 2012-17. Duke had not appeared in a bowl game since 1995.

During the 2017 campaign, Johnson worked with third team All-ACC center Austin Davis, who was also one of four team-elected captains. Johnson's offensive line opened holes for Duke to have two 200-200 performances as the Blue Devils reached the Quick Lane Bowl. Off the field, Johnson oversaw the selection of offensive tackle Gabe Brandner to the CoSIDA Academic All-District first team and Allstate AFCA Good Works Team as well as being a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation William V. Campbell Trophy and Wuerffel Award. In 2016, Johnson oversaw an offensive front that allowed time and space for four 200-200 performances during the season.

During Johnson's three campaigns with the Blue Devil offense in the capacity of quality control, Duke won 27 games, captured the 2013 ACC Coastal Division championship and appeared in three bowl games. Working alongside veteran line coach John Latina, Johnson helped guide seven All-ACC picks including Casey Blaser, Takoby Cofield, Dave Harding, Lucas Patrick, Perry Simmons, Matt Skura and Laken Tomlinson.

Duke went 8-5 with a victory over Indiana in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in 2015, and the Blue Devils joined Clemson and North Carolina as the only three squads in the league to rank among the conference's top five in rushing offense, passing offense, total offense and scoring offense. Blaser, Patrick and Skura each garnered All-ACC honors.

In 2013, Duke ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg). On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the Blue Devils set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season

Johnson lettered four seasons (2001-04) as an offensive lineman at Ole Miss under Cutcliffe, serving as team co-captain as a senior. He helped the Rebels to 28 wins over four years and a pair of bowl game appearances. After earning second team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press as a senior, Johnson represented Ole Miss at the 2004 Senior Bowl.

A second round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2005 NFL Draft, Johnson spent four seasons (2005-08) with the Vikings and helped the squad to the NFC North Division championship and a playoff berth in 2008. After spending the 2009 campaign with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he closed his playing career with a stint with the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League.

Johnson graduated from Ole Miss in 2004 with a degree in criminal justice while minoring in sociology. He has one daughter, London.

2014: Camellia Bowl (South Alabama)

Joey Jones, the former South Alabama head coach who guided the Jaguars to 52 victories and two bowl appearances, begins his first season as special teams coordinator at Mississippi State. Head coach Joe Moorhead announced his hiring on February 22, 2018.

Jones' accomplishments were long and distinguished during his nine-year head coaching tenure with the Jaguars since the inception of the program in December 2007. USA produced 48 All-Sun Belt Conference recipients in his last six seasons, 23 professional players and 15 individuals who signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams.

Jones' attention to special teams was evident in 2017 as USA ranked second nationally in ESPN.com's special teams efficiency rating (74.0) behind only Kansas State.

Jones led USA to wins in each of its first 19 contests, which including posting a 7-0 mark in the program's inaugural season of 2009 and a 10-0 record the following fall. He guided the Jags through the transition to the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision and competition in the Sun Belt Conference. After being picked to finish seventh out of eight teams prior to the start of the 2013 campaign, he was chosen the league's Coach of the Year for directing the Jaguars to a tie for third in the final standings.

In addition to helping USA to a winning conference record in 2014, Jones was responsible for leading the program to its first two bowl appearances — the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl and the 2016 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

The 2016 season under his watch saw the Jaguars tally two historic victories. USA defeated Mississippi State in Starkville for its first-ever win over a Southeastern Conference foe, and one month later the Jags picked up their initial victory over a nationally-ranked school with a 42-24 defeat of No. 19 San Diego State. Jones finished with a 52-50 record in his nine seasons at USA.

The Mobile, Ala., native is no stranger to building programs from the ground up at both the high school and collegiate level in the South. He returned to his hometown after two years at Birmingham-Southern, where he was hired in 2006 to restart the school's football program there. After spending a year overseeing administrative aspects of the program such as hiring assistant coaches, designing facilities and recruiting players for the Division III program, he led his 2007 squad of 126 freshmen to a 3-7 overall record, including a pair of wins over established junior-college programs.

Success has followed Jones throughout his career, both as a coach and as a player. Before moving into the collegiate ranks, he compiled an impressive 125-38 record in 13 years at the high-school level, including a 10-year run at Birmingham's Mountain Brook High, where he was 101-27 from 1996-2005.

After inheriting a program that had endured nine consecutive losing seasons, Jones directed the Spartans to the 1996 Class 6A state championship game, four region titles, two semifinal appearances and three quarterfinal appearances during his tenure.

In his second season with the Spartans, they won a postseason contest before falling in the second round in overtime, while his efforts helped MBHS reach the quarterfinals each of the next two falls. Jones led the program to a first-round victory in the 2001 postseason before helping the school return to the state semifinals a year later. In 2003, the Spartans reached the quarterfinals of the state playoffs, while they would go on to reach the semifinals the next season and win another first-round game in Jones' final year leading the program.

Jones began his head coaching career at Dora High School, where he registered a 24-11 mark in three seasons from 1991-93. It took just one year for him to lead the Bulldogs to postseason action, as they won a first round state 5A playoff contest before falling in overtime in 1992, while his efforts took the school to the quarterfinals the next season. From 1989-90, he served on the Briarwood Christian staff, helping the school to a berth in the quarterfinals of the state 3A playoffs his final year.

A 1989 graduate of Alabama with a degree in business administration, Jones became one of the most beloved Crimson Tide players during his tenure, which began under the tutelage of legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He finished his career with 71 receptions, 1,386 yards and 15 touchdowns, ranking fourth on the career touchdown receptions chart and seventh in career receiving yards. As a junior in 1982, Jones had eight touchdown receptions, which ranks tied for third in Alabama single-season history.

Jones earned All-SEC honors as a senior after hauling in 31 receptions for 468 yards and five scores. He was later selected to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 1980s and played professionally with the Birmingham Stallions of the USFL and the NFL's Atlanta Falcons.

In April 2011, Jones was inducted into the Mobile Sports Hall of Fame.

Jones and his wife, Elise, have three children, Joe Jr., Jake and Caroline.

BOWL/PLAYOFF GAMES AS A COACH

2011: New Era Pinstripe Bowl (Rutgers)

Tem Lukabu enters his first season as Mississippi State's linebackers coach and brings an impressive resume to Starkville, one that includes four years as a defensive assistant in the NFL. Lukabu also owns five years of linebacker coaching experience at the collegiate level, which includes stops at Florida International, Rutgers, Colgate and Rhode Island.

Lukabu spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the defensive quality control coach with the San Francisco 49ers. In 2017, Lukabu assisted defensive backs coach Jeff Hafley, who guided a 49ers secondary that saw included standouts Eric Reid and Jimmie Ward. The 2016 season saw Lukabu work closely with the linebackers.

In 2015, Lukabu served as the defensive line coach at Florida International, where he helped seniors Michael Wakefield and Denzell Perine. Wakefield earned first-team All-Conference USA honors with 7.5 sacks and 14 tackles for loss. In 2014, he served as the outside linebackers coach at his alma mater, Colgate.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Lukabu spent two seasons (2012-13) as a defensive assistant for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2013, linebacker LaVonte David registered career highs in sacks (seven) and interceptions (three) en route to earning First-Team All-Pro honors. In 2012, Lukabu assisted the Buccaneers defense, which ranked first in the NFL against the run after finishing the 2011 season last in that category. During his time in Tampa Bay, he worked with defensive tackle Gerald McCoy, who was named to the first two Pro Bowls of his career and first-team All-Pro honors in both 2012 and 2013.

Lukabu joined Tampa Bay following two seasons (2010-11) at Rutgers, where he coached outside linebackers under Greg Schiano. In 2011, Lukabu coached Khaseem Greene, who led the team with 144 tackles and earned conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors, the first player in Rutgers history to do so.

Before working with the Scarlet Knights, Lukabu spent two seasons (2008-09) as linebackers coach at the Rhode Island, mentoring Matt Hansen, a second-team All-Colonial Athletic Association and All-New England Sports Writer honoree, and Rob Damon, a third-team FCS All-American and third-team All-CAA recipient.

Lukabu began his coaching career working in player development at Rutgers (2006-08), where he was responsible for the academic growth and development of football players, monitoring the academic performance of specific players with special needs and assisting in the execution of plans and academic goals set for the team.

A former linebacker, Lukabu was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter at Colgate (2000-03). The Raiders won back-to-back Patriot League titles as Lukabu was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in both 2002 and 2003, becoming the first player to claim that honor twice. He was a first-team All-Patriot League selection both seasons and was named a third-team Associated Press All-American. He was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the national defensive player of the year.

Born in Kinshasa, the capital and largest city in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in central Africa, Lukabu earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in history with a minor in political science from Colgate in 2004.

He is married to the former Kate Barrett, who was team captain for Colgate women's soccer, a two-time All-Patriot League performer and the Patriot League's 2003 Offensive Player of the Year. The couple has three children: two daughters, Zaida and Kamryn, and one son, Pax.

Bob Shoop, who has coordinated units to Top 25 rankings in total defense in five out of the last seven years, enters his first season on Joe Moorhead's Mississippi State staff as defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Moorhead officially announced Shoop's hiring on Dec. 10, 2017.

The 2014 National Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Shoop has proven to be one of the top defensive minds in the game. He has served as a defensive coordinator for 15 years, including two seasons at Tennessee (2016-17), two seasons at Penn State (2014-15) and three seasons at Vanderbilt (2011-13). Over his last 10 seasons, he's coached 16 NFL Draft picks with five at Tennessee, five at Penn State, three at Vanderbilt and three at William & Mary.

The Oakmont, Pa., native has 29 years of collegiate coaching experience, and he's coached in 11 bowl games.

As defensive coordinator at Tennessee in 2017, he oversaw a Vols unit that ranked sixth nationally in pass defense, allowing 161.7 yards per game through the air. In 2016, Shoop directed a Vols defense that was decimated by injuries. Despite the injuries, Derek Barnett earned consensus All-America honors while registering a career-high and SEC-best 13 sacks along with a conference-high 19 tackles for loss. Barnett was then selected in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

That same season, Tennessee ranked sixth in the SEC and tied for 32nd in the country with 24 takeaways. The Vols ranked third in the SEC and 15th in the country with 100 tackles for loss. They were also third in the SEC and tied for seventh in the nation with 13 fumbles recovered.

Two of Shoop's Tennessee players heard their names called in the 2018 NFL Draft, including cornerback Rashaan Gaulden (third round – Carolina Panthers) and defensive tackle Kahlil McKenzie (sixth round – Kansas City Chiefs).

Prior to his two-year stint in Knoxville, Shoop transformed Penn State into one of the top defensive units in college football. In 2015, the Nittany Lions ranked 15th in the country in total defense (324.3), 10th in passing defense, (174.5) and tied for the most sacks per game (3.54) in the nation.

Four Penn State players developed by Shoop were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft, including second round defensive tackle pick Austin Johnson (Tennessee Titans), defensive ends Carl Nassib (Cleveland Browns) and Anthony Zettel (Detroit Lions) and safety Jordan Lucas (Miami Dolphins).

In his first season overseeing the Nittany Lions defense in 2014, the unit ranked second in FBS total defense (278.7) and seventh in scoring defense. That season, Shoop helped senior safety Adrian Amos grab three interceptions and gain honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades and safety Marcus Allen earn Freshman All-America and Big Ten All-Freshman honors. For his efforts in his Penn State debut, 247Sports.com recognized Shoop as its National Defensive Coordinator of the Year.

Following the season, Amos was selected in the fifth round of the 2015 NFL Draft to the Chicago Bears.

From 2011-13, Shoop served as defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Vanderbilt where he directed the Commodores to Top 25 finishes in total defense in each of his three seasons. Vanderbilt forced 30 turnovers in 2013, which tied for 10th nationally, including 24 over the final eight games. Shoop's 2012 unit held opponents to 18.8 points per game, the lowest by Vanderbilt since 1997, and ranked in the Top 20 nationally in pass defense (14th, 191.8 avg.), scoring defense (15th, 18.8 avg.) and total defense (19th, 339.9 avg.).

Shoop began his coaching career at his alma mater, Yale, in 1989 as a graduate assistant. He has also spent time as an assistant coach at William & Mary (2007-10), Massachusetts (2006), Boston College (1999-2002), Army (1998), Villanova (1997), Yale (1989, 1994-96), Northeastern (1991-93) and Virginia (1990).

Shoop also has head coaching experience. From 2003-05, he served as head coach at Columbia.

Shoop played wide receiver at Yale where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics. He was recognized with Yale Football's prestigious Robert Gardner Anderson Memorial Award for team spirit, dedication and leadership. He also earned four letters in baseball.

Shoop was a three-sport standout at Riverview High School and is a member of the Allegheny-Kiski Valley Sports Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maura, have two sons, Tyler and Jay.

COACHING CAREER

2018-present: Mississippi State (Head Strength and Conditioning Coach)
2015-17: Arizona Cardinals (Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach)
2014: Mississippi State (Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach)
2008-09: University of Pittsburgh (Graduate Assistant)
2007: Indiana University of Pennsylvania (Strength and Conditioning Assistant)

BOWL/PLAYOFF GAMES AS A COACH

2015: NFC Championship (Arizona Cardinals)
2014: Orange Bowl (Mississippi State)
2009: Meineke Car Care Bowl (Pittsburgh)
2008: Sun Bowl (Pittsburgh)

Anthony Piroli, who spent the past three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals and coached on Mississippi State's No. 1 ranked team in 2014, will lead the Bulldogs' football strength and conditioning program in 2018.

"Anthony is a rising star in the profession who knows what it takes to be successful at Mississippi State," head coach Joe Moorhead said. "A western Pennsylvania native, I have followed him closely during his career. We are happy to bring him back to Starkville in charge of our strength and conditioning program. He has worked at the highest level, trained some of the world's elite athletes and was a part of one of the greatest teams in Mississippi State history."

Piroli was involved in all facets of the Arizona Cardinals' strength and conditioning program (2015-17). He worked for legendary NFL strength coach Buddy Morris as an assistant with the Cardinals and as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh earlier in his career.

During his Arizona NFL tenure, Piroli was in charge of sports sciences and player tracking systems. He worked as the performance staff liaison to the nutrition staff and food services during the move to a more health conscious and organic cafeteria.

Piroli is no stranger to Starkville. He spent the 2014 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach. That year was one of the greatest in school history as State won 10 regular season games for the first time and spent five consecutive weeks ranked No. 1 nationally. The memorable year was capped with the Bulldogs' first Orange Bowl appearance since 1941.

Piroli was the co-owner and Director of Sports Performance at Evolution Sports Institute in Pittsburgh, Pa., from 2011-14, working with athletes and coaches at all levels to design and implement strength, speed, flexibility and conditioning programs.

The Aliquippa, Pa., native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, in 2007 as the strength and conditioning coach for the football team. He then worked as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Pittsburgh for two seasons (2008-09) before working at Power Train Sports Institute in Pittsburgh as a sports performance coach for two years (2009-11). Piroli also served as a volunteer strength coach with Ohio State's football team in the summer of 2013.

He graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2007 and earned his master's degree in exercise science from the University of Pittsburgh in 2009.

Piroli is accredited as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and a Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC). He is married to the former Justine Snyder.

TAXSLAYER BOWL CHAMPIONS

MSU finished the year with a 9-4 record after winning its third straight bowl game when they defeated Louisville, 31-27, in the TaxSlayer Bowl on Dec. 30 at Everbank Field. They were coached by interim coach Greg Knox, who took over the program for December following Dan Mullen's departure. The Bulldogs recorded the ninth nine-win season in program history and went 4-4 in league play. Seven of the nine wins were of the double-digit variety, including its largest victory ever over LSU (37-7).

2017 SENIOR CLASS LEAVES LEGACY AS WINNINGEST CLASS IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- The class owned a 34-17 (.667) record and tied for first among MSU senior classes in victories.
- Reached a bowl game every year of their careers, winning three
- Spent a school-record 10 weeks ranked in the Top 10 and five straight weeks ranked No. 1 as freshmen in 2014
- Owned a 19-8 record at home in Davis Wade Stadium

SWEAT, SIMMONS MAKE FIRST-TEAM ALL SEC HISTORY

For the first time in MSU history, the Bulldogs produced multiple first-team All-SEC defensive linemen as Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat were on both the coaches and Associated Press first teams. It represented just the second time since 2003 that an SEC West school produced multiple first-team All-SEC defensive linemen. Alabama was the only other team to do it during that span when in 2015 Johnathan Allen and A'Shawn Robinson achieved the feat. With offensive tackle Martinas Rankin earning first-team All-SEC honors as well, it represented the first time since the 2014 season that MSU tallied at least three players on the All-SEC first team.

A-TRAIN ECLIPSED 1,000 YARDS RUSHING MARK

Aeris Williams (1,135) became the first MSU running back to go over 1,000 yards rushing in a season since Josh Robinson (1,203) did in 2014. Williams, nickname the "A-Train", has rushed for 2,033 yards for his career. MSU has now produced 13 1,000-yard rushers in a season. Williams' 85.1 yard per game average in 2017 ranked sixth in the SEC.

SEC'S BEST PASS RUSH DUO CALLS STARKVEGAS HOME

First-team All-SEC defensive linemen Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat were an unstoppable force that combined for 27.5 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks. Sweat, a Michigan State transfer, led the SEC in sacks with 10.5 in all games. He also topped the league in conference only games with 7.5. Simmons was double-teamed all year but still managed to cause havoc in the middle with 12 tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and a nation-leading three blocked kicks. Sweat's 10.5 sacks ranked seventh in MSU single-season history and were the most by a Bulldog since Willie Evans led the SEC with 15.0 in 2005:

MSU Single-Season Sack Leaders

| | Player | Sacks | Year | Yds. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1. | Billy Jackson | 17.0 | 1980 | NA |
| 2. | Willie Evans | 15.0 | 2005 | 96 |
| | Billy Jackson | 15.0 | 1981 | NA |
| 4. | Greg Favors | 12.5 | 1996 | 112 |
| 5. | Mike McEnany | 12.0 | 1981 | NA |
| | Edward Smith | 12.0 | 1998 | 112 |
| 7. | Montez Sweat | 10.5 | 2017 | 64 |

TOP 20 FINISH IN THE POLLS

State was ranked No. 19 in the Associated Press Top 25 and No. 20 in the Amway Coaches poll. It represented MSU's highest poll finish since ending the 2014 season ranked Nos. 11 and 12 in the Associated Press and Coaches polls, respectively. It was also the Bulldogs' seventh Top 20 finish all-time in the Coaches poll (including the former UPI rankings). After re-entering the polls on Oct. 30, MSU closed the year with seven straight ranked weeks.

ELITE RUSHING ATTACK

• MSU was one of three FBS programs who have a QB-RB duo each averaging over 80.0 yards per game rushing, joining triple-option threats Georgia Tech (TaQuon Marshall-KirVonte Benson) and Navy (Zach Abey-Malcolm Perry). Aeris Williams averaged 85.1 yards per game, while Nick Fitzgerald was 82.0 ypg.
• State rushed for over 250 yards nine times in 2017 and finished 8-1 in those contests. The Bulldogs have eclipsed 250 rushing yards in 13 out of their last 20 games dating back to the Kentucky game on Oct. 22, 2016.
• MSU averaged 251.7 yards per game on the ground, which was second in the SEC and 11th nationally. That tally was the best by a Bulldog squad since 1980 when it put up a school-record 280.5 yards per game.
• MSU produced the SEC's most individual 100-yard rushing games in 2017 with 10 (6 by Nick Fitzgerald, 4 by Aeris Williams).

BULLDOGS PUT UP IMPRESSIVE NUMBERS AGAINST TIDE

MSU gave top-ranked Alabama all it could handle on Nov. 11 in Davis Wade Stadium, both on the scoreboard and physically on the lines:
• Alabama entered the game trailing only two minutes and 26 seconds on the entire season. They trailed for 15 minutes and 21 seconds against MSU.
• The 147 rushing yards by MSU were the most allowed by Alabama in the last two years and most since Georgia had 193 on Oct. 3, 2015. Auburn would end up rushing for 168 at the end of the regular season.
• The three rushing touchdowns by MSU (2 by Aeris Williams, 1 by Nick Fitzgerald) were the most allowed by Alabama in the Nick Saban era (since the start of 2007).
• Aeris Williams (2) had more rushing touchdowns than all 10 previous Alabama opponents had. Williams was the first player with two or more rushing touchdowns since Ezekiel Elliott of Ohio State had two in the 2015 Sugar Bowl.
• The 24 points by State were the most allowed by Alabama at the time and the most in a regular season game by the Tide since Arkansas put up 30 on Oct. 8, 2016. Auburn ended up scoring 26 in the regular season finale.
• MSU racked up five sacks in the game, the most allowed by Alabama since Clemson had five in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship.

MSU FOURTH IN SEC WEST, FINISHED AHEAD OF MEDIA POLL PROJECTIONS AGAIN

For the sixth straight year, MSU finished ahead of where they were projected by the media poll at SEC Media Days in July. The Bulldogs were picked to finish sixth in the SEC West and ended up in a tie for fourth. It was the seventh time in the last nine years that MSU finished ahead of were they were projected.

| SEC West | SEC | Overall |
|---|---|---|
| Auburn | 7-1 | 10-4 |
| Alabama | 7-1 | 13-1 |
| LSU | 6-2 | 9-4 |
| Mississippi State | 4-4 | 9-4 |

MSU Dominant in All Phases in Opener, 49-0

MSU turned in one of the most dominant defensive performances in its history in shutting out FCS Charleston Southern, 49-0, in the season-opener. The Todd Grantham era opened with the Bulldogs' first shutout since 2014 as MSU held the Bucs to 0.7 yards per play, representing the fewest allowed in school history. Charleston managed only two first downs and 33 yards of total offense - the fewest allowed by MSU since 1963. The Bulldogs put up 23 points in the first quarter as Nick Fitzgerald capped the first drive with a 2-yard run. Fitzgerald then found Gabe Myles for an 8-yard score. For the first time since 2000, MSU tallied two safeties with both coming in the first half. Fletcher Adams, making his first career start, played a crucial role in both. The Bulldogs led 35-0 at the break when Fitzgerald hit Deddrick Thomas for a 10-yard score. Eleven different MSU players caught passes on the day, while MSU's rushing attack pounded out 281 yards. Fitzgerald accounted for three touchdowns before sitting most of the second half. Redshirt freshman Kobe Jones, playing in his first career game, finished with six tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one forced fumble. Jeffery Simmons recorded the first sack of his career, while Adams had 1.5 tackles for loss. Grantham's defense finished with 10 tackles for loss, while Charleston Southern never crossed the 50-yard line.

MSU Scores 36 Unanswered, Beats LA Tech, 57-21

Nick Fitzgerald accounted for five touchdowns as MSU rallied from a 9-0 deficit with 36 unanswered points to run past Louisiana Tech, 57-21, on a Saturday night in Ruston. Tech took advantage of a Fitzgerald interception and went up 9-0 with 6:46 to go in the first quarter. That is until defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons made his presence known with the first of two touchdowns on the night. Simmons skied into the air to block a punt and then recovered his own blocked punt in the endzone. Fitzgerald then found a groove, hitting Jordan Thomas and Donald Gray for touchdown passes on consecutive drives. Fitzgerald got into the scoring act himself with two spectacular touchdown runs to put MSU up 43-14 with 14:27 remaining in the third quarter. Simmons did it again, scooping up a Gerri Green forced fumble and returning it 90 yards for a touchdown on the ensuing drive. It was the longest fumble recovery score for the Bulldogs since 2000. Simmons finished with five tackles and became the first MSU defensive player with multiple scores in a game since Johnthan Banks had two against Florida in 2009. Green tallied two forced fumbles and two sacks, while Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with 10.

MSU Crushes No. 11 LSU in Most Dominant Win in Series History, 37-7

MSU handed No. 11 LSU its worst loss in the 111-year series history by a score of 37-7 in front of a raucous 60,596 on a Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. The win was the Bulldogs' first over the Tigers in Starkville since 1999 and it was MSU's largest margin of victory over a ranked opponent since 1942. Nick Fitzgerald accounted for four touchdowns, and Aeris Williams rushed for 146 yards - his second straight 100-yard game. The Bulldogs pounded out 285 yards on the ground, the most allowed by LSU under defensive coordinator Dave Aranda. MSU scored on seven consecutive drives. Fitzgerald had two first-half rushing scores, including a pivotal 3-yard dive with 0:07 remaining in the second quarter that put the Bulldogs up double digits and capped a 10-play, 54-yard drive. MSU outscored LSU 20-0 in the second half. Todd Grantham's defense held the Tigers to 3-of-13 on third down. LSU punted on three consecutive drives and turned it over on downs twice in the second half. Jeffery Simmons set the tone up front with a career-best seven tackles, 1.5 sacks and two quarterback hurries. Mark McLaurin collected a team-high nine tackles. Walk-on Jace Christmann also coverted the first field goals of his career.

No. 11 Georgia Takes Control Early, Beats MSU, 31-3

No. 11 Georgia scored on a 59-yard flea-flicker on its first play from scrimmage and never looked back as No. 17 MSU lost its first game of the season by a score of 31-3 on a Saturday night in Sanford Stadium. The Bulldogs did not manage a touchdown and got on the board prior to the half with Jace Christmann's 26-yard field goal to cap a 12-play, 51-yard drive. Nick Fitzgerald failed to reach the endzone for the first time in six games. Georgia scored touchdowns on its first two offensive possessions. They outscored State 17-0 in the third quarter and went 75 yards on their first possession of the second half. MSU was held to 4.0 yards per play and only 103 yards through the air. Nick Gibson rushed for a career-best 52 yards, including a long of 39. Dez Harris recorded a game-high and career-high 12 tackles to go along with one forced fumble. Johnathan Abram, a Georgia transfer, added six tackles and 0.5 tackles for loss. State remained winless in Athens since 1956.

No. 13 Auburn Hands No. 24 MSU Second Straight Loss, 49-10

No. 13 Auburn used a 21-point first half and pitched a shutout in the second half to deal No. 24 Mississippi State its second straight loss by a score of 49-10 on Saturday night in Jordan-Hare Stadium. The Tigers took a 7-0 lead three minutes into the game and MSU looked to have tied the contest when Jeffery Simmons forced a fumble that was recovered by Montez Sweat, who returned it to the endzone. However, a whistle blew the play dead before the return. The Bulldogs managed to get the football back after the review, and Jace Christmann drilled a 40-yard field goal to put MSU on the board. Nick Fitzgerald engineered an 8-play, 77-yard drive before the half when he found Justin Johnson for a 5-yard touchdown to keep the Bulldogs within striking distance at 21-10. The back breaker came when the Tigers went 99 yards on their first possession of the second half after MSU had to punt on its first possession. Brandon Bryant was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with a career-best 11. Simmons had 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack. Sweat finished with three tackles and one sack.

MSU Gets Back to Winning Ways Against BYU, 35-10

The tandem of Nick Fitzgerald and Aeris Williams proved to be too much for BYU as Mississippi State returned to the win column with a 35-10 win on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium in what was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville since 2001. Fitzgerald and Williams went over 100 yards rushing in the same game for the fourth time in their careers. Fitzgerald finished with 344 yards of total offense and four touchdowns. The Bulldogs went on a season-long 89-yard drive to start the scoring that culminated with a 15-yard Fitzgerald TD run over a defender. After Fitzgerald threw an interception that was returned 67 yards to the MSU 33-yard line early in the second quarter, Jeffery Simmons came up with a crucial forced fumble that was recovered by Marquiss Spencer. State responded with a 74-yard drive, and Fitzgerald connected with Donald Gray for a 9-yard touchdown. Fitzgerald added another score before the half to put the Bulldogs up 21-3. Jamal Couch got into the scoring act on a throw into the corner of the endzone from Fitzgerald with 12:00 to play in the third quarter. The Bulldogs racked up 35 first downs, representing the most in the Dan Mullen era. Meanwhile, Mullen moved into a tie for second place in school victories with his 65th. J.T. Gray led all tacklers with eight, while Brandon Bryant recorded his first interception of the season.

MSU Blows Out Kentucky on Homecoming, 45-7

MSU, playing its first SEC opponent on Homecoming since 1999, avenged its loss to Kentucky a year ago by a score of 45-7 on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. Nick Fitzgerald had perhaps his most efficient game, completing a career-best 69.2 percent of his passes (18-of-26) and accounting for three touchdowns. He rushed for 115 yards and two scores against a Wildcat run defense that came in ranked 10th nationally allowing only 97.2 yards per game on the ground. Fitzgerald put the Bulldogs up for good when he turned a broken play into a 40-yard touchdown run right before the half. MSU took its first possession of the second half and ate up a season-long 7:53 on the clock before Fitzgerald found Jordan Thomas on a 10-yard quick slant touchdown with 7:07 to go in the third quarter. With MSU leading 24-7, backup QB Keytaon Thompson got into the scoring act for the first time in his career with rushing touchdowns of 9 and 40 yards in the fourth quarter. Gerri Green provided the highlight of the game when he intercepted UK QB Stephen Johnson and returned it 84 yards through traffic for a touchdown. Johnson was pressured all day as MSU racked up three sacks, including 1.5 from Montez Sweat. Sweat had a career-best seven tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. Mark McLaurin led all tacklers with 11 and had a forced fumble.

Bulldogs Stifle No. 24 Texas A&M on Road, 35-14

MSU jumped on No. 24 Texas A&M early and often en route to a 35-14 win at Kyle Field, in what was the largest margin of victory over a ranked team on the road for the Bulldogs since 1942. Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 246 yards of total offense and three touchdowns, and he went over 100 yards rushing for the third straight game. Fitzgerald and the Bulldogs set the tone with a flawless drive of 16 plays and 86 yards in a season-long 8:13 that was capped on the QB's 2-yard keeper. In the second quarter, Mark McLaurin intercepted a Kellen Mond pass and MSU immediately capitalized. Fitzgerald raced 45 yards for a first down and then found Donald Gray for an 8-yard touchdown pass. The Bulldog defense pitched a shutout in the first half and intercepted a season-best three passes. The highlight came when Jamal Peters returned an interception 90 yards for a score, halting a potential Aggie scoring drive. Lashard Durr also delivered his first career interception. MSU limited A&M to 96 rushing yards and racked up two sacks, including two from Montez Sweat. Johnathan Abram and Leo Lewis led all Bulldog tacklers with eight. It was State's first victory in College Station since 1913 and just the fourth time the two teams have met at Kyle Field since that date.

Second-Half Rally Keeps No. 16 MSU Unbeaten At Home, 34-23

After trailing 20-13 at the half, No. 16 Mississippi State outscored UMass, 21-3 in the second half to win its fourth straight, 34-23, on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. With the Bulldogs clinging to a four-point lead, Deddrick Thomas provided the play of the game, returning a punt 83 yards for a touchdown with 5:00 remaining in the game. Thomas, filling in for an injured Donald Gray and Gabe Myles, was returning the first punts of his career. It was the fifth-longest return by a Bulldog in school history and longest in 19 years. Nick Fitzgerald and Aeris Williams went over 100 yards rushing, and Fitzgerald had two rushing scores. J.T. Gray put MSU on the board on UMass' first possession, stepping in front of a pass and returning it 58 yards for a touchdown. It was the third straight game that the Bulldogs recorded a pick-six. After allowing a few big plays in the first half, MSU's defense stepped up in the third and fourth quarters. Jeffery Simmons led the Bulldogs with eight tackles, while Gerri Green had 1.5 tackles for loss. Montez Sweat added a sack. State pounded out 254 yards on the ground in what was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville.

Top-Ranked Alabama Escapes in 31-24 Thriller

No. 1 Alabama outscored No. 16 Mississippi State 14-3 in the fourth quarter as Jalen Hurts found DeVonta Smith for a 26-yard touchdown with 0:25 remaining to give the Tide a 31-24 win. One of the most raucous crowds in Davis Wade Stadium history saw the teams trade blows for three quarters. MSU became the first team to rush for three or more touchdowns against the Tide in the Nick Saban era. Two of those came from Aeris Williams. The Bulldogs dominated time of possession and kept Alabama's offense off the field for most of the game. Nick Fitzgerald orchestrated a 13-play drive that ate up 6:30 in the third quarter. His 2-yard score, running over a linebacker, put MSU up 21-17 with 6:03 left in the third. The Bulldogs then forced an Alabama punt and Jace Christmann connected for a 25-yard field goal with 14:13 to go. That's when the Tide made its move. After tying the game at 24 all, MSU went three-and-out but managed to stay alive when Alabama missed a 41-yard field goal off the left upright with 2:03 to go. The Bulldogs went three and out again before the tandem of Hurts and Calvin Ridley marched down the field. MSU had two final Hail Mary attempts, one that was called for pass interference and one that was thrown out of the end-zone to end the game. Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with 11, including 1.5 sacks.

Fitzgerald's Fourth-Quarter Comeback Lifts MSU, 28-21

Nick Fitzgerald recorded the largest fourth quarter comeback of his career, throwing two touchdowns in the final four minutes, including the 6-yard game-winner to Deddrick Thomas with 0:17 remaining as Mississippi State beat Arkansas, 28-21, in dramatic fashion on a blustery day in Razorback Stadium. State trailed 14-0 off the bat as Arkansas capitalized on two turnovers. The game was tied at 14 all at the half and the Razorbacks took the lead into the fourth quarter. Fitzgerald engineered a 6-play, 55-yard drive and capped it when he found Reggie Todd for his first career touchdown on a 37-yard throw with 3:57 left in the game. That tied the score. After a defensive stop, Fitzgerald did it with his feet and his arm and found Thomas for the game-winner. Fitzgerald finished with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season.

Injuries, Turnovers Plague No. 14 MSU in 31-28 Egg Bowl Loss

MSU quarterback Nick Fitzgerald fractured his right ankle with MSU trailing 7-0 with 9:13 remaining in the first quarterback, and five turnovers proved to be costly for the Bulldogs in a 31-28 loss to Ole Miss on a cold Thanksgiving night in Davis Wade Stadium. Fitzgerald was carted off the field and then spelled by true freshman Keytaon Thompson, who registered his first career 100-yard rushing game. Thompson ran for a score and threw for a score. MSU outgained the Rebels 501-355 on the night. The Bulldogs nearly rallied from a 31-13 fourth-quarter deficit by scoring 22 points in the final period. True freshman Kylin Hill produced his longest rushing touchdown of the year, a 30-yarder, with 4:58 to play to cut the deficit to 31-21. MSU then forced a three-and-out, and Thompson capped an 8-play, 62-yard drive with a 1-yard score with 1:05 to go. With the Bulldogs trailing 31-28, the Rebels recovered MSU's on-side kick attempt and then ran out the clock. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Egg Bowl returned to Thanksgiving Night in primetime on ESPN. Johnathan Abram led MSU with eight tackles. True freshman Erroll Thompson had five tackles and 1.5 sacks, while Mark McLaurin registered an interception. The Bulldogs were also without the services of two of its captains to injury - top linebacker Dez Harris and top wide receiver Donald Gray.

MSU Ousts Louisville For 31-27 TaxSlayer Bowl Victory

With an interim coaching staff led by Greg Knox at the helm and injuries keeping key players off the field, Mississippi State defied the odds and used big plays on both sides of the ball to defeat Lousiville, 31-27, and earn a TaxSlayer Bowl victory. With Nick Fitzgerald out with an ankle injury, true freshman Keytaon Thompson made his first career start and put on a record-breaking performance in the win. Thompson finished 11-of-20 passing for 127 yards and one interception. Thompson would set an MSU bowl record with 27 rushing attempts for 147 yards and three rushing scores, which tied Vick Ballard and Dontae Walker for the MSU bowl record. Ultimately, MSU racked up 404 yards of offense behind Thompson's leadership. MSU's defense kept Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson in check with six pass break-ups, six sacks and four interceptions. Safety Mark McLaurin was named the TaxSlayer Bowl MVP after recording three interceptions to set an MSU bowl record. UL led 21-17 at halftime and 24-17 through three quarters, but State rallied to outscore Louisville 14-3 in the final period on the strength of two of Thompson's three rushing touchdowns as well as two of McLaurin's three interceptions.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION
COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MSU has produced four National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes/William V. Campbell Trophy finalists with Taveze Calhoun being the most recent in December 2015. Calhoun was the SEC's only representative in 2015. Calhoun was awarded an $18,000 post graduate scholarship and honored at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York. The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation and is the highest academic honor in college football.

DUQUESNE 13

January 1, 1937 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs 13-12 in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the postseason clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pa., ahead 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

#9 MISSISSIPPI STATE 14
#13 GEORGETOWN 7

January 1, 1941 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days) 14-7 in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of all-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three all-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus all-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

NC STATE 12

December 21, 1963 • Philadelphia Stadium • Philadelphia, Penn.

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over the North Carolina State Wolfpack.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience (on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play) at Philadelphia Stadium, a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the N.C. State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the period as the Laurel, Miss., resident sprinted 3 yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But North Carolina State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a Plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

NORTH CAROLINA 24

December 28, 1974 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and 18th in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rockey Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, two-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered one of his most critical 12 tackles of the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's All-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

#8 NEBRASKA 31

December 27, 1980 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, later cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Ga. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Miss., for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions in 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicking specialist Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, La., booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

KANSAS 0

December 31, 1981 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and all-America linebacker Johnie Cooks of Leland, Miss., leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference 10-0 to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced a fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as all-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tenn., recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

Place-kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to 17th in the final AP national poll.

Moore also set a record, averaging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Miss., contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

AIR FORCE 38

December 29, 1991 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

An all-time Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by all-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three unanswered touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

#24 MISSISSIPPI STATE 17
#19 NORTH CAROLINA 21

January 1, 1993 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside The Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and loss on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

27th ANNUAL PEACH BOWL

#16 MISSISSIPPI STATE 24
#23 NC STATE 28

January 2, 1995 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place-kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt a bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from 3 yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

#23 MISSISSIPPI STATE 11
#20 TEXAS 38

January 1, 1999 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' Cotton Bowl record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

CLEMSON 7

December 30, 1999 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson 17-7 in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime.The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

TEXAS A&M 41 (OT)

December 31, 2000 • Independence Bowl • Shreveport, La.

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Wayne Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a four-yard score to Dicenzo Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10
UCF 3

December 29, 2007 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

#21 MISSISSIPPI STATE 52
MICHIGAN 14

January 1, 2011 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

It was an offensive clinic from start to finish for Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs manufactured 485 total yards en route to a dominating 52-14 win against Michigan in the 66th annual Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Mississippi State set several school bowl records with points scored (52) and margin of victory (38). In addition, the 485 total yards of offense were second only to the 499 gained against North Carolina in the 1974 Sun Bowl.

Chris Relf, named the game's MVP, completed 18 of his 23 passes for 281 yards and three touchdowns. The 281 passing yards were the second most in MSU bowl history. They are also the only two quarterbacks to throw for more than 200 yards in a bowl game. Relf, a junior from Montgomery, Ala., also scored on the ground from 1-yard out and finished with 311 total yards.

As prolific as MSU's offense was, so too was the defense. The Bulldogs held the Wolverines (7-6) to 342 yards, with 153 coming in the opening quarter. Michigan did enjoy a 14-10 lead after the first frame, but failed to score another point the remainder of the game.

Quarterback Denard Robinson was limited to a season-low 51 yards after grounding out 59 in the first quarter.

Robinson's arm produced the game's first points when he connected with Roy Roundtree for a 10-yard scoring strike. MSU quickly answered, though, and evened the score when Relf hit Arceto Clark from 4 yards out.

On their next possession, the Bulldogs took their first lead at 10-7 on a 42-yard field goal by Derek DePasquale. Back came the Wolverines, however, who went back on top following a 27-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms.

That play, though, would be Michigan's last highlight of the game. From that point, it was all Mississippi State.

With 11:38 left in the first half, Vick Ballard scored the first of his three touchdowns to give MSU a 17-14 lead. Then with 6:35 remaining, Relf found the end zone to extend the advantage to 24-14.

But the Bulldogs weren't done, as they scored again with 25 seconds left, this time on a 15-yard pass from Relf to Ricco Sanders, his first-career TD reception, for a 31-14 lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs, who converted 9 of their 17 third-down attempts and were 5 of 5 on fourth down, got two more touchdowns from Ballard covering 1 and 7 yards. Ballard finished the year with 19 rushing touchdowns, breaking the single-season mark of 16 set by Jackie Parker in 1952.

MSU's final points were the result of a 31-yard pass from Relf to Michael Carr, the first touchdown of the freshman's career.

WAKE FOREST 17

December 30, 2011 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

Donning the Maroon and White for the final time, senior running back Vick Ballard put the team on his back as he rushed for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns to propel Mississippi State to a 23-17 victory against Wake Forest in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Pascagoula, Miss., native was named MVP, while his production was the second best in MSU bowl history.

It was the Bulldogs' fifth-consecutive bowl win, a streak that tied Rutgers for the longest in the nation. MSU also improved to 9-6 in bowl outings, with a 4-2 mark against ACC foes.

Ballard deserves a bulk of the credit for MSU's latest achievement, breaking free down the sidelines for a 60-yard scoring scamper with 34 seconds left in the opening quarter to even the game at 7-apiece after the Demon Deacons had scored on a 14-yard run by Brandon Pendergrass.

In the second quarter, Mississippi State turned to its passing game to take the lead for good when senior quarterback Chris Relf connected with a wide open Arceto Clark for a 31-yard scoring strike and a 13-7 advantage following the missed PAT. The touchdown was set up when junior defensive end and All-American Fletcher Cox blocked a Wake Forest field goal.

The final points of the half resulted in a 33-yard Derek DePasquale field goal which put MSU up, 16-7.

In the second half, though, Wake Forest grabbed the early momentum when Tommy Bohanon closed the gap to 16-14 on a 1-yard plunge. However, it would be as close as the Demon Deacons would get.

Ballard made sure of that in the fourth quarter when he broke free for a 72-yard touchdown, the longest in MSU bowl history, to swell the lead to 23-14.

Wake would score again on a 46-yard field goal by Jimmy Newman, but from that point the MSU defense thwarted any comeback hopes by taking its play to another level.

Offensively, MSU outgained Wake, 382-287. Relf threw for 129 yards on 12-of-19 passing, while also rushing for another 64 yards en route to finishing his career as MSU's winningest quarterback (15-7).

The defense was led by the play of Cox and Corey Broomfield, who registered a career-best two tackles behind the line of scrimmage to go along with a team-high nine tackles. It was a unit that recorded six sacks, the most since having seven in a 47-35 home win against No. 3 Florida on Sept. 30, 2000.

#20 NORTHWESTERN 34

January 1, 2013 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

The No. 20 Northwestern Wildcats (10-3) downed the Mississippi State Bulldogs (9-5) 34-20 in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

Northwestern wasted no time getting on the board when Quentin Williams returned a Tyler Russell interception 29 yards just 47 seconds into the game.

Jeff Budzien added a pair of field goals on the Wildcats next two drives from 34 and 37 yards, respectively.

The Bulldog defense then stopped the Northwestern offense on back-to-back drives leading to MSU's first points of the day.

Devon Bell got the scoring going with a 27-yard field goal. After MSU forced a three-and-out, Russell connected with Arceto Clark for an 18-yard touchdown and sent State to the locker room only trailing by three.

Nickoe Whitley stopped Northwestern's first drive of the second half with the first of his two interceptions on the day. Three minutes later, Bell tied his career-long with a 47-yard field goal to square the game at 13 apiece.

The Wildcats quickly retook the lead with a six-play, 76-yard drive that only took 1:12 off the clock and then added another touchdown with 1:35 left in the third quarter to take 27-13 lead into the final stanza.

MSU tacked on another touchdown when Russell floated a pass to Malcolm Johnson in center of the endzone just 3:18 into the fourth quarter.

The MSU defense forced another three-and-out on Northwestern's next drive but, Russell's fourth interception of the day was returned 44 yards to the five yard line. The Wildcats punched in their final touchdown to secure the win.

Josh Robinson finished the game as State's leading rusher with 91 yards on seven carries. Junior LaDarius Perkins added 85 yards on 19 carries.

Clark finished with three catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, while Johnson hauled in two catches for 24 yards and a score. Chad Bumphis also grabbed three catches for 18 yards in his final game as a Bulldog.

Russell completed 12-of-28 for 106 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 44
RICE 7

December 31, 2013 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State ended the year and its 2013 season and year with a fitting celebration, ousting the Rice Owls 44-7 to claim victory in the 55th AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The margin of victory was the largest in any bowl game played thus far in 2013.

With the win, the Bulldogs secured their fourth-straight winning season and Dan Mullen earned the record for most bowl wins by any MSU coach ever, now 3-1 in four bowl appearances in his five seasons as the Bulldog mentor.

State dominated the game on both sides of the ball, with the defense holding Rice's top-15 national rushing attack to only 61 yards on the ground in the game while the Bulldog offense racked up 533 total yards on the other side of the ball.

After the Owls took an early 7-0 lead, the Bulldogs went on to score 44 unanswered points in the convincing win. Five different State players scored touchdowns in the contest.

State set school and Liberty Bowl records in the game. Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott accounted for five touchdowns responsible for (a Liberty Bowl record) while throwing for 283 yards and three scores and rushing for two others. Junior receiver Jameon Lewis set the all-time MSU record for receiving yards in any game - regular or post season - with 220 yards on nine catches.

MSU ended 2013 on a flurry, winning consecutive overtime games at Arkansas and against arch rival Ole Miss at home to become bowl eligible and vault itself into Tuesday's contest in Memphis.

#12 GEORGIA TECH 49

December 31, 2014 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Mississippi State (10-3) fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and Georgia Tech's (11-3) triple-option attack proved to be the difference in a 49-34 score in the 2014 Capital One Orange Bowl at Sun Life Stadium. It was the Bulldogs' first appearance in the contest in 73 years, capping a 10-win season.

A turnover on MSU's first possession led to a Tech touchdown, setting the tone for the rest of the evening. Both teams combined for nearly 1,200 total yards with most of State's coming through the air and nearly all of Tech's on the ground.

MSU junior quarterback Dak Prescott set several records over the course of the evening, throwing for over 400 yards and becoming the all-time record Bulldog holder for yards in a career at MSU, surpassing Don Smith. He also set the school single-game record for total offense with exactly 500 yards against Tech, 453 coming through the air. The highlight of the evening was Prescott's Hail Mary 42-yard touchdown pass to Fred Ross as time expired in the first half. Ross caught the touchdown off a deflection in the end zone that pulled the Bulldogs to within 21-20.

However, Tech's ground attack quickly got rolling in the second half with a 69-yard touchdown run a minute into the third quarter. The Yellow Jackets scored 21 unanswered points. MSU's De'Runnya Wilson caught two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter but it proved to be too late.

NC STATE 28
MISSISSIPPI STATE 51

December 30, 2015 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

In a fitting end to the greatest career in MSU history, Dak Prescott threw for a Belk Bowl-record 380 yards and four touchdowns on a rain-soaked field as MSU capped a nine-win season with a 51-28 blowout of NC State in Charlotte. Selected the game MVP, Prescott completed 25 of 42 passes and ran for 47 yards joining Colin Kaepernick, Tim Tebow, Dan LeFevour as the only players in FBS history to throw for 9,000 yards and run for 2,500 yards in their career. The Bulldog defense set the tone early. On the first play from scrimmage, defensive end Jonathan Calvin hit Jacoby Brissett as he released the ball and linebacker Gerri Green came up with the diving interception. Five plays later, Fred Ross hauled in a pass from Prescott in the left flat, turned up the left sideline and raced 14 yards for a score. Brissett had another pass picked off later in the first quarter and Prescott capitalized by finding De'Runnya Wilson for a 28-yard scoring strike. MSU made it 21-0 when Ross scored on a 33-yard reverse. Prescott lobbed his third TD pass of the game to Holloway over a blitzing defense to put the Bulldogs up 37-21 late in the third quarter. The senior quarterback hit Holloway in stride on a go route along the right sideline for a 55-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. Beniquez Brown and J.T. Gray led all tacklers with nine. Prescott was lifted in the final minute to a standing ovation. The win propelled MSU to back-to-back seasons of at least nine victories for the first time in school history.

MIAMI [OHIO] 16
MISSISSIPPI STATE 17

December 26, 2016 • Tropicana Field • St. Petersburg, Fla.

A pair of blocked kicks, a field goal and two touchdown runs from quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led Mississippi State to a 17-16 victory over Miami [Ohio] in the 2016 St. Petersburg Bowl. With some last-second theatrics, State's Nelson Adams blocked Miami's potential game-winning field goal attempt with five seconds left to lift MSU to the win.

It was MSU's second block of the game with the Bulldogs' Johnathan Calvin also knocking down a Miami extra point attempt early in the game that would ultimately provide the one-point difference in State's triumph. Quarterback Nick Fitzgerald was named MVP of the game after totaling 268 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 13-of-26 passes for 126 yards, while he tied Anthony Dixon's program record with his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the year, running for a total of 142 yards and two touchdowns.

After a slow start to the game (State trailed 9-0 in the second quarter), MSU's offense began to pick up near the end of the first half, scoring on a two-yard keeper by Fitzgerald with 22 seconds left before the intermission. Following a 44-yard touchdown run by Fitzgerald and an interception by sophomore cornerback Jamoral Graham in the third quarter, junior place kicker Westin Graves gave MSU its first lead of the game in the fourth quarter, hitting a 36-yard field goal to put the Bulldogs up 17-16.

The Bulldogs were paced defensively by senior linebacker Richie Brown with nine tackles, in addition to a forced fumble. State's defense forced two turnovers over the course of the game.

December 30, 2017 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

With an interim coaching staff in place and injuries keeping big-time player makers off the field, true freshman Keytaon Thompson in his first-ever start at quarterback turned in a record-breaking performance against Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson and Louisville as MSU capped off a nine-win season and earned the program's third consecutive bowl victory ousting the Cardinals 31-27 in Jacksonville.

Thompson finished 11-of-20 passing for 127 yards and one interception. The true freshman quarterback tied an MSU bowl record with 27 rushing attempts for 147 yards and three rushing scores. Ultimately, MSU racked up 404 yards of offense behind Thompson's leadership.

MSU's defense kept Jackson contained as the Bulldog defense recorded six pass break-ups, six sacks and four interceptions. Selected as the TaxSlayer Bowl MVP, Mark McLaurin tallied three of MSU's four interceptions to set a MSU bowl record.

Louisville led 21-17 at halftime and 24-17 through three quarters, but State rallied to outscore the Cardinals 14-3 in the final period on the strength of two of Thompson's three rushing touchdowns as well as two of McLaurin's three interceptions.

WELCOME TO #STARKVEGAS

"Mississippi State has become the loudest stadium in America. They get those cowbells ringing about three hours before kickoff out in the parking lots. You go through a game there, you come out of there and you can't hear for about a day and a half. It is unbelievable."
- Pat Forde, Yahoo Sports on Dan Patrick Show (8.22.17)

"Mississippi State was truly incredible. If I was to rank the SEC Nation shows and experiences this year, Mississippi State is No. 1. You cannot find a square inch of open grass (in the Junction). The loudest fans we have heard so far in college football this year."
– Joe Tessitore, SEC Network (10.23.14)

"When there is a big game at Davis Wade, I'd put that atmosphere up against anything in college football. You gotta see it to believe it."
-John Hayes, Producer of The Paul Finebaum Show, (9.19.17)

"Want to know what a revolution sounds like? Between the third and fourth quarter, Journey's "Don't Stop Believin'" blares through the stadium speakers. The throng rings cowbells to the beat, creating a deafening roar as they try to hold on to the feeling."
– Pete Thamel, Sports Illustrated (10.10.14)

"The weekend in Starkville was one of the most electric and extraordinary I've ever experienced covering the Southeastern Conference. I have never seen anything quite like this in my 35 years of covering college football. We could spend the rest of our lives trying to top that show."
– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network

"As road environments go, Mississippi State gets really loud – lot of CLANGA going on. The CLANGA in real life is a lot different than the CLANGA off the speaker."
- Andy Staples, Sports Illustrated (9.14.17)

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

"The loudest game I have ever attended – start to finish – even postgame. You haven't lived until you've heard 'Don't Stop Believing' with accompaniment from 50,000 cowbells."
– Stewart Mandel, Fox Sports (10.11.14)

"Furthermore, Scott Field had become a virtual noise factory, louder than ever and that is really loud. You could not hear the guy next to you even when he was yelling."
- Rick Cleveland, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame writer (11.11.17)

"Poor you. You spent Saturday somewhere other than Mississippi. I'm sorry. You didn't get goose bumps from a late-morning Starkville din so loud it seemed set to jar loose the Mississippi-Alabama borderline and hurl it nearer Tuscaloosa."
– Chuck Culpepper, Washington Post (10.5.14)

"These are the most genuine, authentic fans in America."
– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network, on the Nov. 14, 2015 SEC Nation show

"The environment Saturday at Davis Wade Stadium was as electric as any college sporting event you're ever going to find. It was the loudest stadium I've ever been in and it wasn't just the cowbells. It was an awesome environment all the way around and great people."
– Chris Low, ESPN.com (10.11.14)

"To all those Bulldog fans shining those cell phone flashlights and signing along to Don't Stop Believin', they make Davis Wade Stadium the most fun place to watch a football game in the SEC."
– Kevin Scarbinsky, AL.com (11.14.15)

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

Capacity: 61,337

A new era of Mississippi State football begins as new head coach Joe Moorhead leads the Mississippi State Bulldogs into raucous atmosphere of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in the midst of a span that has seen 20 wins over the last 28 home games. In 2014, the Bulldogs tied the single-season school record for home victories, posting a 7-0 mark en route to the program's first No. 1 national ranking.

All of the top 20 crowds in stadium history have come during the last four seasons of competition.

Christened after Olympic sprinter Don Magruder Scott, one of State's first football superstars, the 103-year-old historic facility (the nation's second-oldest Division I-A campus football stadium) has undergone six renovation and expansion projects during its history. The first game at Scott Field came with an MSU win over Marion (Ala.) Military Institute, 54-0, on Oct. 3, 1914.

More than $100 million in football projects have been initiated in the last few years. Of that figure, $75 million of it went towards the nationally-praised 2014 Davis Wade expansion.

The latest addition of note was a new, state-of-the art locker room in the north end zone of Davis Wade Stadium, which began construction in May 2017. The locker room, which will house the Bulldogs beginning with the 2018 season, features 11,100 square-feet of space and will include custom-built lockers, separate coach and staff locker rooms, an expansive athletic training room as well as an equipment room.

The players' locker room will feature high-gloss metal panel ceiling, color-changing LED linear lighting, internally lit ceiling logos and a state-of-the-art sound system. In addition, a new recruiting lounge spanning over 3,000 square feet is being constructed adjacent to the locker room. The previous home locker room in the south end zone will transition into the visiting team locker room for the 2018 season.

The $3.6 million project is being privately funded through the Bulldog Club. LPK Architects is the project's architect. ICM is the construction manager, and Copeland and Johns is serving as the general contractor.

Completed in August 2017, the north end zone expansion increased capacity to 61,337, provided additional premium seating, elevators, restrooms and concessions, and a completely new west side concourse. Construction began in August 2012.

The construction contract for the project was awarded to the Harrell Contracting Group of Jackson, Miss. Harrell won the construction project in a university sealed bid process.

The north end zone addition created a total of 8,815 new seats, which, factored with the loss of the previously existing bleacher seating in the north end zone, resulted in a net 6,255-seat increase. Included in those 8,815 seats were 7,076 grandstand seats, 1,155 Scoreboard Club seats, 236 loge seats, 22 traditional suites totaling approximately 288 seats and 60 field-level suite seats. Additionally, standing room availability and ADA-compliant seating were also included in the project.

Also included in the north end zone is a non-seated, field level premium area, The Gridiron, which provides club-like amenities to any season ticket holder who buys a membership regardless of that person's stadium seat location. The new area became a fan favorite during the 2014 season. Following all seven of the Bulldogs' home wins, the team sang the alma mater and then took a victory lap in front of The Gridiron.

The north end also features a new high-definition video board similar in size to the one currently standing on the stadium's south end, which is among the largest in college athletics.

The west side renovation showcases a rebuilt concourse under the west stands, the addition of four high-capacity elevators, an increase in restroom and concession point of sale facilities and a brick facade that matches the new construction on the north. In 2014, fans saw the number of elevators at Davis Wade Stadium more than double (from five to 12), the restroom fixture total nearly double (from 313 to 621), and permanent concession point of sale positions increase by over 40 percent (from 110 to 156).

The new North End Zone and Gridiron Club were part of a $75 million Davis Wade Stadium expansion completed in 2014 that increased capacity by over 6,000.

For

media, the project included a new television compound away from the stadium proper. The TV compound is now located west of the stadium, allowing network broadcast trucks to connect to stadium equipment via underground cable runs.

The renovation and expansion was funded by the sale of $68 million in bonds and $7 million in private giving. Private contributions for the stadium project were part of the Bulldog Club's "Today. Tomorrow. Forever" Athletics Facilities Initiative, which is completely independent of annual giving and priority seating donations.

Construction and renovation design for the Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation was handled by local architect LPK of Meridian, Miss., along with national sports consultants 360 Architecture of Kansas City. The design team engineered the north end zone facility to support future expansion of approximately 5,000 seats, including 22 additional suites and an upper deck.

The 2014 renovation and expansion came on the heels of installing $1.4 million LED ribbon boards in the summer of 2011. The project, funded by the Bulldog Club, is located in the upper deck facades on the east and west sides, and brings fans in-game graphics, scores, stats and other pertinent information to improve the game-day experience.

One of the most talked about features at Davis Wade, however, is one of college football's largest high-definition video boards, located in the south end zone of the stadium. The $6.1 million true HD board spans the roof of the Leo Seal M-Club Center in the south end zone at Scott Field. The board measures 152 feet wide by 135 feet, 6 inches tall, with a main HD screen 111 feet wide by 47 feet high.

The last previous expansion came in the summer of 2000 and raised capacity to 55,082 with the addition of 50 skyboxes and 1,700 club-level seats. The expansion continued into the 2001 season with the addition of 7,000 upper-deck seats. The entire project, completed at a cost in excess of $30 million, was made possible, in large part, by a financial commitment from the late Floyd Davis Wade Sr., of Meridian, Miss., for whom the stadium itself is now named.

Earlier building efforts in 1936 and 1948 brought capacity at Scott Field to 35,000 seats and provided the basic concrete grandstand structure (35 years after the '48 expansion, the end zone seating structures were removed, lowering the capacity to 32,000 in 1983). But after 25 years, Scott Field was ready for another facelift and an expanded seating potential for the school's growing following.

A $7.2 million drive in 1986, spearheaded by former MSU athletic director Carl Maddox and an active group of university and community leaders, financed the addition of 9,000 seats to Scott Field's capacity without the use of appropriated state funding. A 5,500-seat upper deck, an additional 1,700 chairback seats that extend from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairback seats flanking the Bob Hartley Press Box on the second level were added to the west side. Two 1,700-seat sections were added to the east side stands to bring capacity to 40,656.

Earning a reputation of being one of the nation's toughest places to play, the facility has been host to average attendances in excess of 55,000 the last six seasons. In fact, the last 10 years have seen the largest cumulative totals in the stadium's history.

In 2011, the program watched as each game recorded a then top-15 all-time attendance mark at Davis Wade Stadium, including 57,871 against Alabama (second) and 56,924 vs. LSU (fourth). The 335,695 total fans to watch a game in Starkville was then the highest ever for a six-game schedule at the venue.

State fans broke the school record for total attendance again in 2013 with 389,868 total fans, including a seven-game record average of 55,695. On Nov. 16, 2013, 57,211 people wrapped in Maroon and White attended the Alabama game, the fourth-largest crowd in school history.

During the memorable 2014 campaign, the first in the new expansion, MSU set attendance records for single-season total attendance (427,892), single-game average attendance (61,127) and single-game attendance (62,945). The 2014 Bulldogs also tied the school record for home wins as their 7-0 mark matched the 1999 team. The seven home victories also helped State to the first 10-win regular season in program history.

MSU broke total attendance (432,490) and single-game average attendance (61,784) for the third straight year in 2015. That year, the Bulldogs eclipsed over 50,000 in season ticket sales for the first time in program history. The previous high for season ticket sales was 45,575 in 2014, and prior to that was 43,894 in 2013.

National media have proclaimed the new north end zone expansion has arguably made Davis Wade Stadium the noisiest from start to finish in college football. A sea of maroon and white in The Junction turned out for the first-ever SEC Nation broadcast in Starkville on the SEC Network prior to State's thumping of Texas A&M on Oct. 4. One week later, ESPN College GameDay made its first appearance in Starkville on Oct. 11 as No. 3 MSU battled No. 2 Auburn in a matchup of the highest ranked teams in the stadium's history. ESPN personality Lee Corso donned a Bulldog mascot head to a roar from the crowd. Hours later, MSU topped Auburn, 38-23, before a record crowd of 62,945 in the loudest game in school history. The victory ascended the program to its first No. 1 national ranking.

Scott Field's playing surface, which hosted 16-straight home victories between 1998-2000, is lush Hybrid Bermuda Grass (Certified Tifway 419), complete with a brand-new underground drainage and irrigation system. The field is encircled by a holly-lined sideline fence and end zone landscaping.

Entering the 2018 season, a total of 10,035,618 Bulldog fans have entered the turnstiles at Davis Wade Stadium since 1970.

On Oct. 11, 2014, No. 3 MSU hosted No. 2 Auburn and set a Davis Wade Stadium attendance record of 62,945 as the Bulldogs downed the Tigers, 38-23, with ESPN's College GameDay on hand for the first time.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

TIMELINE HISTORY OF SCOTT FIELD

1914 – Mississippi A&M's football field moves to its current stadium location and is called the "New Athletic Field."

1920 – Student body adopts a resolution name the field Scott Field in honor of Don Scott, famed Olympic runner and Bulldog football standout from 1915-16.

1928 – Permanent seating for 3,000 fans is built on the west side of Scott Field at a cost of $15,000. In addition portable stands are placed on the east side of the field with a similar capacity.

1936 – Construction begins on concrete stands on the west side with Works Progress Administration labor. The new concrete facility will seat 8,000, while bleachers on the east side and in the end zone bring capacity to 20,000.

1948 – Scott Field is enlarged to 35,000 by increasing the west side concrete stands to 15,000 and the construction of 12,000 concrete seats on the east side of the stadium.

1983 – End zone seating structures are removed, reducing capacity to 32,000.

1986 – A $7.2 million expansion occurs, adding 9,000 seats to Scott Field's west side, including a 5,500-seat upper deck, 1,700 chairback seats extending from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairbacks flanking the press box. Two 1,700-seat sections are also added to the west side stands, bringing total capacity to 40,656.

1999 – Plans are announced for the largest expansion project in stadium history. A $30-million effort, backed largely by longtime MSU supporter Davis Wade, will add an estimated 10,500 seats and 50 luxury skyboxes, bringing total capacity to approximately 55,000 by the 2002 season. The new stadium, when completed, is renamed Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field.

2005 – Permanent end zone seating replaces temporary bleacher seating at the north end of the stadium, bringing official capacity to 55,082.

2012 - Construction begins on a $75-million expansion of the north end zone and the renovation of the west side concourse, bringing official capacity to 61,337 by the start of the 2014 season.

2014 - In a 49-0 win over Southern Miss on Saturday, Aug. 30, MSU celebrates 100 years of Scott Field and officially opens the new north end zone expansion before a record crowd of 61,889. The record would later be broken that season when Auburn came to town.

AGE BEFORE BEAUTY

In 2014, MSU celebrated 100 years of Scott Field in conjunction with the expansion and renovation of Davis Wade Stadium, which was originally built in 1914. Scott Field is the second-oldest stadium in FBS behind Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium.

OLDEST STADIUMS IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

| | Stadium | School | Built | Location |

While it may be one of the oldest in college football, it is in no way outdated. The $75-million renovation and expansion that was completed in 2014 makes it the only stadium among the top five oldest in FBS to be expanded since 2005.

PACKED HOUSE

MSU is second nationally in percentage of average attendance increase in the last 10 years based on stadiums over 60,000 capacity. In 2004, State's average attendance was 43,792, while in 2014 it was 61,127, marking a percentage increase of 39.6. MSU trails only Texas A&M, which saw a 41.1 percentage increase from 2004-14.

State ranked ninth among FBS teams in largest average attendance increase from the previous year with a jump from 55,695 in 2013 to 61,127 in 2014 - a change in average of 5,432.

THE UNIVERSITY

Mississippi State is a comprehensive doctoral-degree-granting institution offering a diverse student body a wide range of opportunities and challenges for learning and growth.

The largest university in the Magnolia State, MSU has a statewide enrollment of more than 21,000 students. and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Calleges to award baccalaureate, masters, specialists and doctorate degrees.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research and service.

The University began as The Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State of Mississippi, one of the national Land-Grant Colleges established after Congress had passed the Morrill Act in 1862. It was created by the Mississippi Legislature on February 28, 1878, to fulfill the mission of offering training in "agriculture, horticulture and the mechanical arts . . . without excluding other scientific and classical studies, including military tactics."

The College received its first students in the fall of 1880 in the presidency of Confederate General Stephen D. Lee. In 1887 Congress passed the Hatch Act, which provided for the establishment of the Agricultural Experiment Station in 1888. Two other pieces of federal legislation provided funds for extending the mission of the College: in 1914, the Smith-Lever Act called for "instruction in practical agriculture and home economics to persons not attendant or resident," thus creating the state-wide effort which led to Extension offices in every county in the State; and, in 1917, the Smith-Hughes Act provided for the training of teachers in vocational education.

By 1932, when the Legislature renamed the College as Mississippi State College, it consisted of the Agricultural Experiment Station (1887), the College of Engineering (1902), the College of Agriculture (1903), the School of Industrial Pedagogy (1909), the School of General Science (1911), the College of Business and Industry (1915), the Mississippi Agricultural Extension Service (1915), and the Division of Continuing Education, (1919). Further, in 1926 the College had received its first accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

By 1958, when the Legislature again renamed the College, as Mississippi State University, the Office of Graduate Studies had been organized (1936), doctoral degree programs had begun (1951), the School of Forest Resources had been established (1954), and the College of Arts and Sciences had been created (1956).

The College of Architecture admitted its first students in 1973. The College of Veterinary Medicine admitted its first class in 1977, and the School of Accountancy was established in 1979.

POINTS OF PRIDE AT MSU

- MSU is on the cutting edge of research and integration into the nation's airspace, serving as the national lead university for the FAA's Center of Excellence for Unmanned Aircraft Systems.
- Mississippi State ranks among the top 50 best colleges in the south in Money Magazine's "Best Colleges for Your Money" 2017 listing.
- Recognized as one of the most influential institutions in entrepreneurship research, Mississippi State is ranked by the Journal of Small Business as No. 6 in the world for the impact of its entrepreneurship research.
- Mississippi State ranks among the top 100 institutions across the country in the number of bachelor's degrees awarded to African-Americans.
- Over the last decade, five MSU professors have been named Mississippi Professor of the Year by the National Council for Advancement and Support of Education and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- MSU's Geosciences Department's meteorology program is among the nation's best with more than one-third of today's TV broadcast meteorologists having been trained at MSU and now working in 85 percent of all U.S. markets.
- As a leader in integrated computational materials engineering, MSU stands at the forefront of research of mechanical responses for the brain under car crashes, football concussions and military explosions.
- Design Intelligence ranks MSU's School of Architecture as the nation's 25th best from a list of approximately 120 architectural programs accredited by the National Architectural Accrediting Board.
- U.S. News & World Report ranks MSU's Distance MBA program and its Distance Master of Science in Information Systems program in the top 50 among the nation's best online programs.
- Solutions to world hunger and poverty are within reach at MSU, where globally diversified teams are combining forces with the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to eliminate starvation in developing countries.
- MSU's student-led teams are developing the Car of the Future® – a lighter, greener, more cost-effective hybrid built on technologies that will lead to energy independence and environmental stewardship.

2017-18 STATE ATHLETIC SUCCESS

• MSU Athletics recorded its highest Learfield Director's Cup finish ever, taking 42nd in the final 2017-18 Division I standings. The 42nd placing eclipsed the department's previous best of 44th in 2015-16. MSU accumulated 568.50 points in the 2017-18 standings, also representing its highest point total ever. The top three Director's Cup finishes in school history have occurred in the last three years.

• CBS Sports named MSU the 14th-best athletics program in the country and fourth overall in the SEC for 2017-18.

• A total of 12 sports advanced to the postseason – football, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's and women's basketball, men's golf, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's outdoor track and field, softball and baseball.

• State was the only school in the nation who won a bowl game and reached an NCAA Final Four – men's or women's – and the College World Series.

• Seven squads finished in the Top 25 of their respective sports, including four in the Top 10: women's basketball (2), baseball (3), men's tennis (5), men's outdoor track and field (10), football (19), women's indoor track and field (20) and softball (23).

• MSU claimed multiple SEC championships (women's basketball, men's tennis) in a single athletic year for the first time since 1996.

• MSU produced four SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year, representing the most in a single academic year in school history. Mallory Eubanks (soccer), Nuno Borges (men's tennis), Blair Schaefer (women's basketball) and Nicolas Quijera (men's track and field) all claimed the honor in their respective sports in 2017-18.

• Bulldog student-athletes generated a school-record cumulative GPA for the combined fall and spring semesters with a 3.08.

Propelled by Anderson Peters (above) and Nicolas Quijera taking first and second in the javelin, the men's track and field team finished 10th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. It was the first time since 2007 that any school had athletes sweep the top two spots in javelin.

For the second straight year, Vic Schaefer's women's basketball program reached the NCAA national championship game after winning a nation-best 37 games. It became the first SEC program to go undefeated in the SEC regular season in 20 years.

Baseball completed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in SEC history, reaching its 10th College World Series and finishing third nationally. MSU earned the third-highest finish in program history. The Diamond Dawgs claimed the NCAA Tallahassee Regional and NCAA Nashville Super Regional in dramatic fashion to advance to Omaha.

Men's Tennis (2) - 1996, 2018

THE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State University's athletic teams are called Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the Maroon and White. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of 'Bully.'

As with most universities, Mississippi State University teams answered to different nicknames through the years. The first squads representing Mississippi A&M College were proud to be called Aggies. When the school officially became Mississippi State College in 1932, the nickname Maroons, for MSU's uniform color, gained prominence. Bulldogs became the official title for State teams in 1961, not long after State College was granted university status.

Yet references to school teams and athletes as Bulldogs actually go back to early in the century, and this nickname was used almost interchangeably with both Aggies and Maroons, since at least 1905.

On November 30 of that year, the A&M football team shut out their arch-rivals from the University of Mississippi 11-0 in Jackson, Miss. The campus newspaper, The Reflector, reported: "After the game, filled with that emotion that accompanies every great victory, there was nothing left for the cadets to do but to complete the great victory by showing sympathy for the dead athletic spirit of the University, by having a military funeral parade.

"A coffin was secured, decorated with University colors and a bulldog pup placed on top. It was then placed on the shoulders of a dozen cadets, and the procession started down Capitol Street, preceded by the brass band playing a very pathetic funeral march."

Other newspaper reports of the victory commented on the 'bulldog' style of play by the A&M eleven, and the Bulldog was soon publicly accepted as a school athletic symbol. Accounts of a 1926 pep rally in Meridian, Miss., had another bulldog parading with students.

BULLY XXI

At Super Bulldog Weekend 2015, the Bulldog family celebrated the passing of the harness, as Bully XXI, known as "Jak," accepted mascot duties from his father Bully XX, fondly called "Champ."

Jak's formal name is "Cristil's Golden Prince," and the American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog was born in October 2014, soon after the legendary Jack Cristil passed away. Naming the newest Bully for the legendary Voice of the Bulldogs who called football and basketball games for 58 years was a fitting choice.

When mascot handlers realized Bully was getting toward retiring age, though he's still in good health, a female bulldog was selected based on her pedigree and history. Following the female's selection, litter of mascot-sired puppies were evaluated.

OFFICIAL MASCOT IN 1935

Use as an official game mascot began in 1935 when coach Major Ralph Sasse, on 'orders' from his team, went to Memphis, Tenn., to select a bulldog. Ptolemy, a gift of the Edgar Webster family, was chosen and the Bulldogs promptly defeated Alabama 20-7.

A litter-mate of Ptolemy became the first mascot called 'Bully' shortly after Sasse's team beat mighty Army 13-7 at West Point that same year - perhaps the greatest victory in MSU football history. But Bully I earned other fame the hard way, in 1939 when a campus bus cut short his career.

Days of campus mourning followed, as Bully lay in state in a glass coffin. A half-mile funeral procession accompanied by the Famous Maroon Band and three ROTC battalions went to Scott Field where Bully was buried under the bench at the 50-yard line. Even Life magazine covered the event. Other Bullys have since been buried by campus dorms, fraternity houses, and also at the football stadium.

For years Bully was a target for kidnappers, the last incident occurring prior to the 1974 State-Ole Miss game. The Bulldog team won anyway, 31-13. While early Bullys once roamed campus freely or lived in fraternities, today the official university mascot is housed at the School of Veterinary Medicine when not on duty at State home football games. For all their fierce appearance and reputation, today's mascot bulldogs are good-natured, friendly animals and favorites with children.

A student wearing a Bulldog suit, also answering to Bully, is part of the MSU cheerleading team and assists in stirring up State spirit at games and pep rallies.

THE COWBELL

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of Mississippi State University tradition is the cowbell. Despite decades of attempts by opponents and authorities to banish it from scenes of competition, diehard State fans still celebrate Bulldog victories loudly and proudly with the distinctive sound of ringing cowbells.

The precise origin of the cowbell as a fixture of Mississippi State sports tradition remains unclear to this day. The best records have cowbells gradually introduced to the MSU sports scene in the late 1930s and early 1940s, coinciding with the 'golden age' of Mississippi State football success prior to World War II.

The most popular legend is that during a home football game between State and archrival Ole Miss, a jersey cow wandered onto the playing field. Mississippi State soundly whipped the Rebels that Saturday, and State College students immediately adopted the cow as a good luck charm.

Students are said to have continued bringing a cow to football games for a while, until the practice was eventually discontinued in favor of bringing just the cow's bell.

Whatever the origin, it is certain by the 1950s cowbells were common at MSU games, and by the 1960s were established as the special symbol of MSU. Ironically, the cowbell's popularity grew most rapidly during the long years when State football teams were rarely successful. Flaunting this anachronism from the 'aggie' days was a proud response by students and alumni to outsider scorn of the university's 'cow college' history.

In the 1960s two MSU professors, Earl W. Terrell and Ralph L. Reeves, obliged some students by welding handles on the bells so they could be rung with more convenience and authority. By 1963 the demand for these long-handled cowbells could not be filled by home workshops alone. So, at the suggestion of Reeves, the Student Association bought bells in bulk and the Industrial Education Club agreed to weld on handles. In 1964, the MSU Bookstore began marketing these cowbells with a portion of profits returning to these student organizations.

Today many styles of cowbells are available on campus and around Starkville, with the top-of-the-line being a heavy chrome-plated model with a full Bulldog figurine handle. But experts insist the best and loudest results are produced by a classic long-handled, bicycle-grip bell made of thinner and tightly-welded shells.

Cowbells decorate offices and homes of Mississippi State alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. But they were not heard at Southeastern Conference games - not legally, at least - since the 1974 adoption of a conference rule against 'artificial noisemakers' at football and basketball games. On a 9-1 vote, SEC schools ruled cowbells a disruption and banned them. The ban was lifted prior to the 2010 season.

The ban did little harm to the cowbell's popularity, or to prevent cowbells from being heard outside stadiums in which the Bulldogs are playing. MSU launched the "Ring Responsibly" campaign at football games. Once the center puts his hand over the football until the time it's snapped, Bulldog fans rest their bells and yell.

MAROON & WHITE

Maroon and White are the distinctive colors of Mississippi State University athletic teams, dating back over a century to the very first football game ever played by the school's student-athletes.

On November 15, 1895, the first Mississippi A&M football team was preparing for a road trip to Jackson, Tenn., to play Southern Baptist University (now called Union University) the following day. Since every college was supposed to have its own uniform colors, the A&M student body requested that the school's team select a suitable combination.

Considering this choice to be an honor, the inaugural State team gave the privilege to team captain W.M. Matthews. Accounts report that without hesitation Matthews chose Maroon and White.

SONGS OF MSU

MSU Alma Mater

In the heart of Mississippi, Made by none but God's own hands,
Stately in her natural splendor, Our Alma Mater proudly stands.
Mississippi State, we love you; Fondest memories cling to thee,

CHORUS:
Maroon and White! Maroon and White!
Of thee with joy we sing; Thy colors bright,
our souls delight; With praise our voices ring.

"Hail State"

Hail dear ole State! Fight for that victory today.
Hit that line and tote that ball, Cross the goal before you fall!
And then we'll yell, yell, yell, yell!
For dear ole State we'll yell like H-E-L-L!
Fight for Mis-sis-sip-pi State.
Win the game today!

DR. MARK KEENUM
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Now in his 10th year of tenure, Dr. Keenum has guided Mississippi State to unprecedented heights. The university has experienced record enrollment growth to nearly 22,000 students, and a new all-time record is expected this fall when final enrollment numbers are announced. Mississippi State has awarded more than 4,000 degrees at all levels for seven straight years, and the university is ranked by SmartAsset as the state's Best Value College with graduates earning an impressive average starting salary of $47,900 – the highest in the state. The Chronicle of Higher Education recently designated Mississippi State as a "Great College To Work For" after receiving top ratings from employees on workforce practices and policies.

The campus has expanded and improved on Dr. Keenum's watch. Mississippi State has completed or initiated capital improvements totaling more than $1 billion since 2009. Chief among those projects has been The Mill at MSU – a $40-million, state-of-the-art conference and meeting complex. The Old Main Academic Center, a new $41-million classroom building and multi-level parking garage, opened in August 2017. A $60-million project featuring two new residence halls and Nusz Hall, which houses the G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, opened the previous fall. A $10-million, fourth-floor expansion of Mitchell Memorial Library to house the Ulysses S. Grant Presidential Library and the Frank and Virginia Williams Collection of Lincolniana celebrated its official opening in November 2017. In March 2018, the university and its partner, Memphis-based EdR Collegiate Housing, broke ground on the innovative $67-million College View development. The first-of-its-kind project for any Mississippi university combines student housing with a mix of retail, commercial, and restaurant space.

A $55-million expansion and renovation of Dudy Noble Field/Polk-Dement Stadium – home to one of the most storied college baseball programs in America – is also nearing completion for the 2019 season. The first phase of the project added the largest video board in the nation to the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball." The second phase includes the Left Field Lofts and Rooftop Club that will provide fans with unforgettable game day memories. This major investment will significantly enhance the Dudy Noble fan experience – already described by many as one of the most unique in college sports today.

New construction projects launching over the next two years include a new Science and Engineering Complex, Music Building, and the completion of an Animal and Dairy Science/Poultry Science Complex for the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine. Additionally, the university is developing a comprehensive plan to build additional teaching and research lab space to meet growing demand, and investing in campus infrastructure, including new parking facilities, roadways, and technology.

Fundraising has reached all-time record levels in recent years. MSU's current Infinite Impact capital campaign reached its initial goal three years ahead of schedule. Due to that unprecedented success, the university announced a new goal – $1 billion by 2020 – the largest campaign goal ever for an educational institution in Mississippi. During his tenure, Dr. Keenum has been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means.

Dr. Keenum is immediate past president of the Southeastern Conference. During his two-year term, he led the SEC Executive Committee, and he continues to serve on the SEC's Content Committee Board of Directors that oversees the highly successful ESPN-SEC Network. He also represents the SEC as a member of the College Football Playoff's (CFP) Board of Managers.

In 2018, he was elected to serve a six-year term on the Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Department of Archives and History, which is the second-oldest state department of archives and history in the country. A comprehensive historical agency founded in 1902, MDAH collects, preserves, and provides access to the archival resources of the state; administers museums and historic sites, including the new Museum of Mississippi History and the Mississippi Civil Rights Museum; and oversees statewide programs for historic preservation, government records management, and publications.

Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has also worked closely with state leaders in Jackson in support of higher education in Mississippi.

Mississippi State plays an integral role in economic development locally, statewide, and across the region. Its impact is further felt nationally and internationally through unique collaborative partnerships with peer institutions, business and industry, government agencies, and leading non-governmental organizations. Dr. Keenum leads these efforts because he understands the positive impact the nation's major research universities can have in the diverse communities they serve. Mississippi State is ranked by the National Science Foundation as a "Top 100" research institution, and it's annual research and development expenditures have exceeded $239 million. Most recently, MSU R&D expenditures accounted for more than half of all expenditures in the state. This research activity is playing an ever-increasing role in the state's overall economic development efforts.

A graduate of Mississippi State with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum's interest in international food security has strengthened the university's contributions to global economic sustainability. In 2014, he was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Foundation for Food and Agricultural Research by U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Thomas J. Vilsack and now serves as chairman. That same year along with other university presidents, he signed the Presidents' Commitment to Food and Nutrition Security at the United Nations in New York City. This marks the first time universities around the world began to share a collective focus on ending food insecurity.

Dr. Keenum's passion for international engagement and transformative research and service has positioned Mississippi State as a leader in addressing global food security and poverty, among other critical issues. In 2014 and again in 2016, he was invited to address the United Nations in New York about the crucial roles public research universities play as the global community works to address critical challenges for a growing population.

In 2018, President Donald J. Trump appointed Dr. Keenum chairman of the Board for International Food and Agricultural Development (BIFAD). BIFAD was created in 1975 under Title XII (Famine Prevention and Freedom from Hunger) of the Foreign Assistance Act. Its mission is to draw on higher education's scientific knowledge and expertise in global food security and world hunger to advise U.S. international assistance efforts.

Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, D.C. and was Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

A graduate of Corinth High School, Dr. Keenum earned an Associate in Arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team. He is married to the former Rhonda Newman of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

JOHN COHEN
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

When John Cohen was named Mississippi State University's 17th director of athletics on November 4, 2016, he wasted little time putting his stamp on the department. Since that time, the former MSU head baseball coach and two-time Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year has overseen the hiring of seven coaches, while 21 teams have advanced to postseason.

During Cohen's short tenure as director of athletics, the athletic department has enjoyed historic success. A record 12 MSU teams advanced to the postseason during the 2017-18 campaign, with seven sports concluding play in the Top 25 and four reaching the Top 10. Under Cohen's watch, State was the only school in the nation who won a bowl game and reached an NCAA Final Four – men's or women's – and the College World Series.

MSU claimed multiple SEC championships in a single athletic year for the first time since 1996. Matt Roberts, the SEC Coach of the Year, guided the men's tennis team to its first SEC Tournament championship since 1996. Vic Schaefer, the 2018 National Coach of the Year, led the women's basketball program to its first SEC regular season title with a perfect 30-0 regular season and a second-straight NCAA national championship game appearance.

Baseball completed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in SEC history, reaching its 10th College World Series and finishing third nationally. The Diamond Dawgs were ranked as high as No. 4 nationally in the final polls, representing the third-highest finish in program history. Meanwhile, the men's track and field program tallied its highest NCAA Outdoor Championships point total since 1982 to claim 10th.

As a result of the Bulldogs' unprecedented athletic success, CBS Sports named MSU the 14th-best athletics program in the country and fourth overall in the SEC for 2017-18. MSU also placed 42nd among the nation's Division I schools in the final Learfield Director's Cup standings, eclipsing the department's previous best of 44th in 2015-16. The top three Director's Cup finishes in school history have occurred in the last three years.

Success carried into the classroom as Bulldog student-athletes generated a school-record 3.08 cumulative GPA for the combined 2017-18 fall and spring semesters. After already producing a school-record fall GPA of 3.15, MSU student-athletes followed that up with a spring GPA of 3.01, the highest spring GPA on record.

"It was a memorable year to be a Bulldog," Cohen said. "I am very proud of our teams, coaches and student-athletes for their collective efforts in setting the highest of standards not only in their sports but also in the classroom and community."

Since becoming Athletic Director, Cohen has been the driving force for numerous state-of-the-art facility projects on campus, including the new $55 million Dudy Noble Field, which opens in full capacity in the spring of 2019. The project has drawn rave reviews and will feature the Left Field Lofts, a revolutionary college baseball experience with luxury two-bedroom suites offering exquisite views of the new ballpark.

Cohen approved construction of a new $3.6 million football gameday home locker room and recruiting center inside the north end of Davis Wade Stadium. The 11,100 square-foot locker room, which opens in September 2018, includes custom-built player lockers, separate coaches and staff locker rooms, an expansive athletic training room as well as an equipment room.

In addition, the Templeton Athletic Academic Center underwent a renovation in the summer of 2018 with modern wall graphics and displays.

Cohen has been instrumental in enhancing the gameday experience for Bulldog fans. In the summer of 2018, MSU announced significant price decreases on all food and beverage at concessions for all home venues beginning with the 2018-19 athletic year. State also unveiled a football season ticket price reduction in several sections of Davis Wade Stadium. New LED videoboard displays were installed at the MSU Soccer Field and Newell-Grissom Building in the spring of 2018.

Cohen, who spent more than two decades coaching college baseball, was named MSU's head baseball coach in July of 2008. Nine years later, Cohen's official role in administration began when he assumed the role of associate athletic director in addition to head baseball coach. The following November, he took charge of an athletic department that has since achieved new heights in athletic, academic, facility, and fundraising achievement.

Success shouldn't come as a surprise as it was never far removed from him during his 12-year run as a head coach in the SEC. His teams have been successful both on the field and in the classroom.

At MSU, he led the Bulldogs to a College World Series finals appearance, an SEC regular season championship and an SEC Tournament championship. In the classroom upon his arrival in 2009, 133 players were selected to the SEC Academic Honor Roll, including three straight SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year winners from 2013-15.

"I'm fortunate to know our MSU coaches as friends and colleagues, and to know many of our athletes in all sports," Cohen said. "While baseball has been a huge part of my life, my passion for seeing MSU athletics thrive extends to all sports. I'm grateful to Dr. Keenum and the MSU Family for allowing me to embrace these new opportunities and responsibilities."

As a baseball player at MSU, Cohen was a key player on the Bulldogs' 1989 SEC championship team and 1990 College World Series team. He graduated from MSU with a degree in English in 1990 and received a master's degree in sports management from the University of Missouri in 1994.

Following a six-year stint with Missouri as a graduate assistant and assistant coach, Cohen was the head coach at Northwestern State University from 1998-2001. Cohen spent two seasons as an assistant baseball coach at the University of Florida before becoming the head coach at the University of Kentucky in 2004, a position he held for five seasons before returning to his alma mater.

While winning 284 games as a head coach at MSU, Cohen demonstrated a keen ability to develop players and coaches. During his tenure, 138 MSU baseball players were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft. Nine of his former Bulldogs have reached the Major Leagues, including Dakota Hudson (Cardinals) in July 2018. His influence can be seen throughout the SEC as four of his former assistants are now or have been head coaches — Brad Bohannon (Alabama), Gary Henderson (Kentucky/Mississippi State), Nick Mingione (Kentucky) and Butch Thompson (Auburn).

Cohen is the only coach in SEC history to win an SEC championship, SEC tournament championship, and advance to the College World Series both as a player and head coach. His 2013 Bulldog club advanced to the CWS championship series for the first time in MSU history. Cohen also had the privilege of being a part of a College World Series as a player, head coach and now athletic director when the Diamond Dawgs reached Omaha in June 2018. His 2012 club produced an SEC record-tying eight Major Leaguers.

Cohen and his wife, Nelle, are active members of the Starkville community. The couple has two children, Jordan and Avery.

JOE MOORHEAD INTERVIEWS

All interviews with head coach Joe Moorhead should be directed through the MSU Athletic Communications office. Please contact Bill Martin at 662-325-0967 or via email (BMartin@athletics.msstate.edu) to arrange an interview. Coach Moorhead has two scheduled interview opportunities during game-week and media representatives are encouraged to make use of these question-and-answer situations.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE (Begins Aug. 27)

Coach Moorhead will conduct a weekly media conference each Monday at 12 p.m. prior to an MSU game. The conference will be conducted in the media room of the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex. Coach The press conference will also be streamed live on SECNetwork+ via the ESPN app and WatchESPN.com. FTP video will be emailed out and the on-demand video will be available at the Hail State YouTube channel.

WEDNESDAY TELECONFERENCE (Begins Aug. 29)

Coach Moorhead will join the league's other 13 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. The teleconferences are every Wednesday from Aug. 29-Nov. 21. Coach Moorhead's 10-minute segment is scheduled from 11:50 a.m.-12 p.m. CT. The teleconference phone number can be obtained by contacting the SEC Communications Office.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All interviews with players must be arranged through the MSU Communications office. Monday serves as an off day for the players and players are not available for interviews on this day. During game week, all player interviews need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Requested offensive players will be available following Tuesday's practice. Requested defensive players will be available following Wednesday's practice. All interviews will take place in the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex media room. Player requests are to be emailed to Bill Martin AND Taylor Shirey (TShirey@athletics.msstate.edu). True freshmen are not available to media. MSU Athletic Communications will not supply the media home or cell numbers for Bulldog student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Members of the MSU Football staff are available for interviews by appointment through Bill Martin in the MSU Communications Office. During game weeks, requested offensive coaches will address the media following Tuesday's practice. Requested defensive coaches will be available following Wednesday's practice. All interviews will take place in the Leo Seal Jr. Football Complex media room.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call of Davis Wade Stadium opens 2 1/2 hours prior to kickoff at Gate C (SW side of the stadium across from Barnes and Noble). The Robert M. Hartley Press Box, named for longtime Mississippi State Sports Information Director and administrator Bob Hartley, is located on the 200 level of the west side of Davis Wade Stadium. To access the press box, enter Gate C on the west side of Davis Wade Stadium and take the media elevator to Level 2.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of season and individual-game parking spaces reserved for the media are available near Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance. Satellite truck parking is located at Humphrey Coliseum.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Joe Moorhead and selected players will be available for postgame interviews in the new postgame interview room on the north end of Davis Wade Stadium. MSU players may not be approached on the field following games for interviews. The visiting head coach and players will be available following the game in the visitors media room located up the right ramp in the south endzone.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Football media credential priority is given to media outlets who cover Mississippi State Athletics on an active, consistent and comprehensive basis. Authorized outlets are established and legitimate journalistic endeavors with a proven history of comprehensive coverage.

• Newspapers

Preference will be given to those newspapers which cover all Mississippi State football games and media opportunities or the opposing team. Newspapers which cover all home games receive the next priority. Non-daily newspapers and newspapers who do not consistently attend MSU's media availabilities will NOT have access to SEC contests.

• Television

Priority will be given to those stations which cover all Mississippi State football games or the opposing team. Stations which cover all home games receive the next preference. Television stations will receive a maximum of two (2) field photo passes. Only one (1) press box seat will be granted to a television station during SEC contests.

• Radio Stations

Credentials will be limited to national networks, the two originating team broadcasts, Mississippi State area stations and the opposing team's hometown stations. Credentials will be granted on a space available basis. These stations must cover MSU Athletics or the visiting team on a regular, year-round basis. Local established radio stations who consistently cover ALL of MSU's sports will be granted one (1) approved credential for a full-time host of a daily sports show. Field passes will NOT be issued to radio stations. Non-daily sports shows or news shows will NOT be granted credentials to SEC contests.

• Photographers

Only photographers who represent national wire services, national magazines and accredited in-state news sites or magazines or sites who cover the opposing team will be considered for sideline credentials. Only working photographers/videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field. Those without proper equipment or not shooting the game will be escorted from the sidelines regardless of credential.

• Internet Sites

Internet sites will receive credential consideration if they meet the following guidelines:

1. Must show intent to be viable news organization, not fan-centric site.
2. Overwhelming majority of content must be original-news stories, not satirical/fan-related posts or re-posts of non-original news from other media outlets.
3. Must be part of a national network (i.e. ESPN.com, CBSSports.com, SI.com, Scout.com, The Athletic, 247Sports.com, Bleacher Report) or national media entity whose purpose is gathering news and disseminating it.
4. Must consistently cover all of MSU's media availability opportunities during game week and consistently cover MSU's other sports OR must consistently cover the opposing team and be approved by the opposing team's media relations/communications staff.
5. Must have established record of meeting the above criteria, either by individual or organization.

Final approval of all credentials is at the discretion of Mississippi State Athletic Communications. Media outlets that cover the visiting school will be considered following consultation with that school's athletics communications/media relations department.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee and the SEC regarding sideline control to insure the sideline is a working media area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

• Each photographer is required to wear a photo vest.

• The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

• Photographers are required to kneel when shooting from the north endzone of Davis Wade Stadium. Standing is not allowed because of the Gridiron fan seating in the endzone.
